After Stress? James W. Moore, 1992 Why is it James Moore asks that we try to justify anything and everything we want to do We use words scapegoats blaming other people circumstances past events even evil spirits the devil made me do it to attempt to excuse bad choices we make with our own free will What does the Christian faith have to say about all this The author reminds us of what our faith tells us about excuses first that God sees through them second that God is more interested in forgiving us than in hearing our excuses third that God wants penitence not excuses from us In his warm embracing style James Moore encourages us to seek forgiveness After all we are justified not by our eloquent excuses but by the grace of a loving caring forgiving God
