Winds of Change, 2014 Putting the Local in Global Education Neal W. Sobania, 2023-07-03 The position taken in this volume is that domestic off campus study can be just as powerful a transformative learning experience as study overseas and that domestic programs can equally expand students horizons their knowledge of global issues and processes their familiarity and experience with cultural diversity their intercultural skills and sense of citizenship This book presents both the rationale for and examples of study away an inclusive concept that embraces study abroad while advocating for a wide variety of domestic study programs including community based education programs that employ academic service learning and internships With the growing diversification regionally demographically culturally and socio economically of developed economies such as the US the local is potentially a doorstep to the planet and presents opportunities for global learning Moreover study away programs can address many of the problematic issues associated with study abroad such as access finance participation health and safety and faculty support Between lower costs the potential to increase the participation of student cohorts typically under represented in study abroad the lowering of language barriers and the engagement of faculty whose disciplines focus on domestic issues study at home can greatly expand the reach of global learning The book is organized in five sections the first providing a framework and the rationale for domestic study way programs addressing administrative support for domestic vs study abroad programs exploring program goals organization structure assessment and continuous improvement and considering the distinct pedagogies of experiential and transformative education The second section focuses on Semester Long Faculty Led Programs featuring examples of programs located in a wide variety of locations from investigations into history immigration culture and the environment through localities in the West and the Lowcountry to exploring globalization in L A and New York Section three highlights five Short Term Faculty Led Programs While each includes an intensive immersive study away experience two illustrate how a 7 10 day study away experience can be effectively embedded into a regular course taught on campus The fourth section on Consortium Programs describes programs that are either sponsored by a college that makes its program available to consortium members and non members or is offered by an independent non for profit to which institutions send their students The final section on Community Engagement and Domestic Study Away addresses the place of community based education in global learning and provides examples of academic programs that employ service learning as a tool for collaborative learning focusing on issues of pedagogy faculty development and the building long term reciprocal relationship with community partners to co create knowledge The book is intended for study abroad professionals multicultural educators student affairs professionals alternative spring break directors and higher education administrators concerned about affordably expanding global education opportunities

India in Space: Between Utility and Geopolitics Marco Aliberti, 2018-01-17 This book presents the renewing strategic vision and progressive diversification of the Indian space programme at the nexus socio economic development commerce and geopolitics It disentangles India s evolving rationales for engaging in space from a wide range of perspectives and provides novel and in depth assessment of the domestic regional and international factors influencing the pace and directions of the country s space programme The study hence includes an extensive analysis of India s path forward including a reflection on the long term evolution of its civil military and commercial space efforts as well as considerations on the toolbox India has at its disposal on the prospected adaptation of the space ecosystem and on the implications these evolutions may generate both domestically and internationally A central part of this final analysis is more specifically devoted to elaborating on the prospects and opportunities for European stakeholders with the goal of identifying possible domains of closer and mutually beneficial Europe India space cooperation and sorting out possible elements for a comprehensive European long term strategy towards India
