As my head was going through, the rear edge of the head had come up and my face head for the edge of the head directly between my two eyes, puncturing my skull and leaving a hole through my skull the size of a dime. Of course, I was unconscious. I was in a coma for a long time. Had during this time, I experienced what Catherine had spoken about. I saw the very bright room. I experienced the presence of intelligent beings. Although I couldn't visualize their faces, I recognized their human like forms. They spoke to me, not verbally—but through telepathy, and told me that I was not going to die... that I had something to accomplish, something to do.

Minutely, I did not die. Whereas I have thought that we really moved up from these lower vibrations, I was able, rather than a point to function as a normal human being. This to me is a miracle.

My head broke the hole through the windshield and I was the first thing my forehead had pierced my face passing through the windshield. But all a hole in my skull and put me into a coma.
