Memo 2014 November Geography:

Origination Andy Pike, 2015-03-24 Origination The Geographies of Brands and Branding offers innovative theoretical and conceptual frameworks relating to the ways that actors create meaning and value in commodity brands and branding through processes of geographical association Provides innovative conceptualization and theorization to facilitate an understanding of the geographical dimensions of brands and branding Challenges current interpretations of brands as vehicles of homogenization in globalization Establishes the theoretical and conceptual foundations of a more geographically sensitive approach through rigorous empirical examination of the under researched geographical differentiation of commodity brands and branding Presents innovative new research and analysis of the socio spatial biographies of the Newcastle Brown Ale Burberry and Apple brands Forges strong new connections between political and cultural economy approaches within geography Provides a distinctive and incisive conceptual and theoretical framework capable of engaging other branded commodities and their branding in other times and places The Meritocracy Trap Daniel

Markovits, 2020-09-08 A revolutionary new argument from eminent Yale Law professor Daniel Markovits attacking the false promise of meritocracy It is an axiom of American life that advantage should be earned through ability and effort Even as the country divides itself at every turn the meritocratic ideal that social and economic rewards should follow achievement rather than breeding reigns supreme Both Democrats and Republicans insistently repeat meritocratic notions Meritocracy cuts to the heart of who we are It sustains the American dream But what if both up and down the social ladder meritocracy is a sham Today meritocracy has become exactly what it was conceived to resist a mechanism for the concentration and dynastic transmission of wealth and privilege across generations Upward mobility has become a fantasy and the embattled middle classes are now more likely to sink into the working poor than to rise into the professional elite At the same time meritocracy now ensnares even those who manage to claw their way to the top requiring rich adults to work with crushing intensity exploiting their expensive educations in order to extract a return All this is not the result of deviations or retreats from meritocracy but rather stems directly from meritocracy's successes This is the radical argument that Daniel Markovits prosecutes with rare force Markovits is well placed to expose the sham of meritocracy Having spent his life at elite universities he knows from the inside the corrosive system we are trapped within Markovits also knows that if we understand that meritocratic inequality produces near universal harm we can cure it When The Meritocracy Trap reveals the inner workings of the meritocratic machine it also illuminates the first steps outward towards a new world that might once again afford dignity and prosperity to the American people The Economics of the Global Defence Industry Keith Hartley, Jean Belin, 2019-11-08 This book makes an original contribution to our knowledge of the world's major defence industries Experts from a wide range of different countries from the major economies of North America and Western Europe to developing economies and some unique cases such as China India Singapore South Africa and North Korea describe and analyse the structure conduct and performance of the defence industry in that country Each chapter opens with statistics on a key nation's defence spending its spending on defence R D and on procurement over the period 1980 to 2017 allowing for an analysis of industry changes following the end of the Cold War After the facts of each industry the authors describe and analyse the structure conduct and performance of the industry The analysis of structure includes discussions of entry conditions domestic monopoly oligopoly structures and opportunities for competition The section on conduct analyses price non price competition including private and state funded R D and performance incorporates profitability imports and exports together with spin offs and technical progress The conclusion explores the future prospects for each nation's defence industry Do defence industries have a future What might the future defence firm and industry look like in 50 years time This volume is a vital resource and reference for anyone interested in defence economics industrial economics international relations strategic studies and public procurement
