Educational Technology and Pedagogic Encounters Yusef Waghid, 2016-07-15 This book looks at some of the underlying theories of educational technology means and ways in which this technology is guided in practice ends The authors are intent on producing ends that prepare students to undertake new analyses and evaluations that can result in new possibilities for democratic action Emphasis is on their understanding of and position within educational technology as opposed to using or applying educational technology The work is not written from the point of view that their embeddedness within educational technology has a utilitarian end in mind but rather that their situatedness within educational technology a practice in itself leaves open possibilities for new ways of understanding democratic education This book is organised into six interrelated themes that work towards the cultivation of educational technology as a human practice which guides pedagogic encounters on the basis of taking risks in relation to which the unexpected unimaginable is always possible Annual Report South Africa. Department of Basic Education, 2016 Proceedings of the International Conference on Education Research Reza Hosseini, Education in a New South Africa Robert J. Balfour, 2015-09-24 A collaborative series with the University of Cambridge Faculty of Education highlighting leading edge research across Teacher Education International Education Reform and Language Education Learning styles: a narrative approach Armando Lozano Rodríguez, 2015-02-25 There are some theories in the field of learning styles that have appeared in specialized literature in the last fifty years Through a refreshing narrative exploration Armando Lozano goes beyond the limits of the theory to express practical applications which many educators and parents would like to know about the different ways in which people learn Peppered with anecdotic capsules the content takes the reader to a real and feasible universe of the daily life From the points of view of a principal a professor a professional a researcher and others the book presents the practical application of the different theories of learning styles Statistics for Empowerment and Social Engagement Jim Ridgway, 2023-03-10 This book is a remarkable achievement Gerd Gigerenzer This book offers practical approaches to working in a new field of knowledge Civic Statistics which sets out to engage with and overcome well documented and long standing problems in teaching quantitative skills The book includes 23 peer reviewed chapters written in coordination by an international group of experts from ten countries The book aims to support and enhance the work of teachers and lecturers working both at the high school and tertiary university levels It is designed to promote and improve the critical understanding of quantitative evidence relevant to burning social issues such as epidemics climate change poverty migration natural disasters inequality employment and racism Effective citizen engagement with social issues requires active participation and a broad understanding of data and statistics about societal issues However many statistics curricula are not designed to teach relevant skills nor to improve learners statistical literacy Evidence about social issues is provided to the public via print and digital media official statistics offices and other information channels and a great deal of data is accessible both as aggregated summaries and as individual records Chapters illustrate the approaches needed to teach and promote the knowledge skills dispositions and enabling processes associated with critical understanding of Civic Statistics presented in many forms These include statistical analysis of authentic multivariate data use of dynamic data visualisations deconstructing texts about the social and economic well being of societies and communities Chapters discuss the development of curricula and educational resources use of emerging technologies and visualizations preparation of teachers and teaching approaches sources for relevant datasets and rich texts about Civic Statistics ideas regarding future research assessment collaborations between different stakeholders and other systemic issues
