Last Letters From The Shoah:

Last Letters from the Shoah Zvi Bachrach, 2004 Presents last letters written by those about to be killed during the Holocaust some filled with hope and aspirations despite the circumstances some with concerns for their own spiritual continuity through their children's survival

Sources for Studying the Holocaust Paul R. Bartrop, 2023-04-14 Sources for Studying the Holocaust provides a pathway for readers to engage with questions about what sources can be used to study the Holocaust For many historians the challenge has been how to rescue the story from oblivion when oft used sources for other periods of history introduce even more issues around authenticity and reliability What can be learned of what transpired in villages and towns numbering several thousand people when all its Jewish inhabitants were totally obliterated through Nazi action Who can furnish eyewitness testimony if all the eyewitnesses were killed How does one examine written records preserving knowledge of facts or events where none were kept or survived the onslaught And what weight do we put upon such resources which did manage to endure the destruction wrought by the Holocaust Each chapter looks at one of a diverse range of source materials from which scholars have rescued the history including survivor testimony diaries letters newspaper accounts photographs trial documents artefacts digital resources memorials films literature and art Each chapter shows how different types of records can be utilised as accurate sources for the writing of Holocaust history Collectively they highlight the ways in which all material even the most fragmentary can be employed to recreate a reliable record of what happened during the Holocaust and show how all sources considered can be employed to find meaning and understanding by exploring a range of sources deeply This book is a unique analysis of the types of sources that can be used to access the history of Holocaust It will be of invaluable interest to readers students and researchers of the Holocaust

Life, Death and Sacrifice Esther Hertzog, 2008 From out of a world of death and destruction extermination camps ghettos starvation and disease there rises the figure of the woman in the Holocaust the core of the fascinating studies in this collection The importance of these research essays is above all their historical documentation of situations and events related to women in the Holocaust In the face of imminent death there was kindness to be seen self sacrifice and the saving of another's life And from a world that had lost all semblance of humanity came a sense of independence that welled up in the survivors infusing them with the spirit of life as they emerged from the inferno And what is for me the most moving the most exciting thing of all is the ability of those who endured to climb to their feet and shake themselves free of the killing fields to begin a new life to start a family Ayala Procaccia Israel Supreme Court Justice The book contains articles by some of the most prominent scholars in the field They tell the stories of women who were humiliated tortured and murdered their eternally etched in the memory stories of struggle and survival This collection of articles is based on two international conferences on women in the Holocaust held in recent years at Beit Berl Academic
