American Airman in the Belgian Resistance Jerome W. Sheridan,2014-10-31 In May of 1944 American airman Gerald E Sorensen was shot down over Nazi occupied Belgium The Belgian Resistance recovered Sorensen and sheltered him in the home of the Abeels family Friendship between Sorensen and the Abeels blossomed and they came to consider each other as family The Abeels were active in the Resistance and Sorensen ultimately volunteered to join his Belgian brother Roger Abeels in the Secret Army Just moments before the British Army arrived to liberate the village of Marcq lez Enghien Sorensen and Abeels were killed in combat with the Nazis fighting side by side This book tells Sorensen s story his upbringing education marriage and military service his evasion of capture and kinship with the Abeels his experience in the Resistance his final combat and his impact on those he left behind But this book is more than a biography It recounts the courageous struggle of the Belgians who risked everything to save Allied airmen and explains why Sorensen and Abeels are extraordinary symbols of the enduring values at the heart of today s transatlantic alliance

Educating About Religious Diversity and Interfaith Engagement Kathleen M. Goodman,Mary Ellen Giess,Eboo Patel,2023-07-03 This book arises out of a recognition that student affairs professionals have little preparation or guidance in dealing with matters of spirituality religion secularity and interfaith work at a time of greater diversity in students beliefs and from a broad recognition that there is a need to engage with this aspect of student life For those who don t know how to begin and may be nervous about tackling a topic that has the potential to lead to heated disagreements this book provides the resources and practical guidance to undertake this work With the aim of providing student affairs practitioners and faculty with the tools they need to increase their comfort level and enable their ability to engage in discussions about belief both in and out of the classroom the contributors provide foundational knowledge concrete teaching ideas sample activities and case studies that can be used in a variety of settings This book serves multiple audiences in student affairs by providing teaching ideas for practitioners who want to include a session or two about interfaith in their programs as well as ideas for student affairs faculty who may be teaching one session on this topic or a whole course The book is divided into four sections The first offers context provides the findings of research and asks readers to reflect on the framework they use to embark on this work whether a social justice framework that aims to highlight issues of power and privilege or an interfaith cooperation framework that aims to create religious pluralism Part Two provides concrete ideas for creating courses activities events and programs focused on spirituality religion secularity and interfaith engagement as well as ideas for incorporating these topics into courses typically offered in student affairs preparation programs Part Three presents case studies to engage students practitioners and faculty in thinking about campus situations related to religious diversity Part Four provides some basic information about a variety of religions and worldviews held by college students
