JOURNAL DU MOUVEMENT DADA ~1915-1923œ (MIL NEUF CENT QUINZE A MIL NEUF CENT VINGT-TROIS). Marc Dachy,1989 Dada Culture ,2016-08-01 How Dada is to break its cultural accommodation and containment today necessitates thinking the historical instances through revised application of critical and theoretical models The volume Dada Culture Critical Texts on the Avant Garde moves precisely by this motive bringing together writings which insist upon the continuity of the early twentieth century moment now at the start of the twenty first Engaging the complex and contradictory nature of Dada strategies instanced in the linguistic gaming and performativity of the movement s initial formation and subsequently isolating the specific from the general with essays focusing on Ball Tzara Serner Hausmann Dix Heartfield Schwitters Baader Cravan and the exemplary Duchamp the political philosophy of the avant garde is brought to bear upon our own contemporary struggle through critical theory to comprehend the cultural usefulness relevance validity and effective or otherwise oppositionality of Dada s infamous anti stance The volume is presented in sections that progressively point towards the expanding complexity of the contemporary engagement with Dada as what is often exhaustive historical data is forced to rethink realign and reconfigure itself in response to the analytical rigour and exercise of later twentieth century animal anarchic thought the testing and cultural placement of thoughts upon the virtual and the eventual implications for the once blissfully unproblematic idea of expression From the opening provocative proposition that historically Dada may have been the falsest of all false paths the volume rounds to dispute such condemnation as demarcation continues not only of Dada s embeddedness in western culture but more precisely of the location of Dada culture Ten critical essays by Cornelius Partsch John Wall T J Demos Anna Schaffner Martin I Gaughan Curt Germundson Stephen C Foster Dafydd Jones Joel Freeman and David Cunningham are supplemented by the critical bibliography prepared by Timothy Shipe which documents the past decade of Dada scholarship and in so doing provides a valuable resource for all those engaged in Dada studies today TaTa Dada Marius Hentea,2014-09-12 The first biography in English of Tristan Tzara a founder of Dada and one of the most important figures in the European avant garde Tristan Tzara one of the most important figures in the twentieth century s most famous avant garde movements was born Samuel Rosenstock or Samueli Rosen tok in a provincial Romanian town on April 16 or 17 or 14 or 28 in 1896 Tzara became Tzara twenty years later at the Cabaret Voltaire in Zurich when he and others including Marcel Janco Hugo Ball Richard Huelsenbeck and Hans Arp invented Dada with a series of chaotic performances including multilingual and nonlingual shouting music drumming and calisthenics Within a few years Dada largely driven by Tzara became an international artistic movement a rallying point for young artists in Paris New York Barcelona Berlin and Buenos Aires With TaTa Dada Marius Hentea offers the first English language biography of this influential artist As the leader of Dada Tzara created the moment art changed forever But Hentea shows Tzara and Dada were not coterminous Tzara went on to publish more than fifty books

he wrote one of the great poems of surrealism he became a recognized expert on primitive art he was an active antifascist a communist and after the Soviet repression of the Hungarian Revolution a former communist Hentea offers a detailed exploration of Tzara's early life in Romania neglected by other scholars a scrupulous assessment of the Dada years and an original examination of Tzara's life and works after Dada The one thing that remained constant through all of Tzara's artistic and political metamorphoses Hentea tells us was a desire to unlock the secrets and mysteries of language

A Cinematic Artist Kim Knowles, 2009 The American artist Man Ray was one of the most influential figures of the historical avant garde contributing significantly to the development of both Dadaism and Surrealism Whilst his pioneering work in photography assured him international acclaim his activity in other areas notably film is to this day both unknown and undervalued During the 1920s Man Ray made four short experimental films and collaborated on a host of other projects with people such as Marcel Duchamp Fernand Léger René Clair and Hans Richter These works along with a series of cinematic essays and home movies made during the 1920s and 1930s represent the most important contribution to the development of an alternative mode of filmmaking in the early twentieth century This book explores Man Ray's cinematic interactions from the perspective of his interdisciplinary artistic sensibility creating links between film photography painting poetry music architecture dance and sculpture By exposing his preoccupation with form and his ambiguous relationship with the politics and aesthetics of the Dada and Surrealist movements the author paints an intimate and complex portrait of Man Ray the filmmaker

Framed! Lucy Bolton, 2007 Broaching the notion of the frame from a variety of analytic perspectives and employing a range of approaches this collection of articles engages with contemporary debates on text and image relations literary reception and translation narratology and cinematographic technique The various contributions to this collection provide new readings in their respective fields and share a common concern with exploring the productive and problematic notion of the frame and of framing in a wide variety of cultural media in French Studies This interdisciplinary analysis of literary and theoretical texts visual art and film allows for fruitful connections to be made at the level of analysis of themes and of methodology It thus provides material that is of interest both to specialists in these fields and also to those seeking a more general introduction to each area This collection of articles is selected from the proceedings of the Framed in French Studies workshop held at the Institut Français in London in February 2006

Art and the Challenge of Markets Volume 2 Victoria D. Alexander, Samuli Hägg, Simo Häyrynen, Erkki Sevänen, 2018-01-16 Art and the Challenge of Markets Volumes 1 2 examine the politics of art and culture in light of the profound changes that have taken place in the world order since the 1980s and 1990s The contributors explore how in these two decades the neoliberal or market based model of capitalism started to spread from the economic realm to other areas of society As a result many aspects of contemporary Western societies increasingly function in the same way as the private enterprise sector under traditional market capitalism This second volume analyses the relationships of art with contemporary capitalist economies and instrumentalist cultural policies and examines several varieties of capitalist critical and alternative art forms that exist in today's art worlds. It also addresses the vexed issues of art controversies and censorship. The chapters cover issues such as the culturalization of the economy, aesthetics and anti-aesthetics, the societal benefits of works of art, art's responsibility to society, activism, activist arts as protest and capitalism, critical works and controversies over nudity in art, as well as considering the marketisation of emerging visual arts worlds in East Asia. The book ends with a concluding chapter suggesting that even in today's marketized and commercialized environments, art will find a way. Both volumes provide students and scholars across a range of disciplines with an incisive comparative overview of the politics of art and culture and national, international and transnational art worlds in contemporary capitalism.

The Dada Spirit Emmanuelle de L'Ecotais, 2002. Dada. This onomatopoeia suggesting a child's babbling started one of the most important mutations in the history of art. But what is Dada? Born of the First World War, Dada is a movement bringing together both artists and writers. From Zurich in 1916, it spread rapidly to New York, Berlin, Hanover, Cologne and finally to Paris where it died in 1924. Because of the diversity of its creations, the Dada movement is not an ism of the art world; there is no Dada style, although a single spirit does govern the works of this movement, which is at once anti-conformist, anti-bourgeois and above all, anti-artistic.

Surrealism, History and Revolution Simon Baker, 2007 This book is a new account of the surrealist movement in France between the two world wars It examines the uses that surrealist artists and writers made of ideas and images associated with the French Revolution describing a complex relationship between surrealism s avant garde revolt and its powerful sense of history and heritage Focusing on both texts and images by key figures such as Louis Aragon Georges Bataille Jacques Andr Boiffard Andr Breton Robert Desnos Max Ernst Max Morise and Man Ray this book situates surrealist material in the wider context of the literary and visual arts of the period through the theme of revolution It raises important questions about the politics of representing French history literary and political memorial spaces monumental representations of the past and critical responses to them imaginary portraiture and revolutionary spectatorship The study shows that a full understanding of surrealism requires a detailed account of its attitude to revolution and that understanding this surrealist concept of revolution means accounting for the complex historical imagination at its heart
