Late Arrival A Path Of Healing And Hope:

Divine Wounds Ness Bosch, 2025-12-09 Finding empowerment in working with ancient gods is not new Sometimes this approach to the deity is born from a wound The wound is a catalyst of consciousness which opens windows to other realities and invisible worlds As a Priestess Hierophant author Ness Bosch sees women who seek to get closer to the divine to the Goddess seeking to restore their connection with the divinity but also connecting with the possible wounds that those goddesses mirror In a painful but beautiful and healing way the divine wound connects with the human feminine wound bringing closer Goddess and mortal This anthology is a collective testament to the survival and resilience of women It is a reminder that every woman no matter how deeply wounded continues to walk hand in hand with others and sometimes with goddesses The wounds we share with these divine figures are not just personal but also universal feminine wounds that have been carried for millennia

Death, the End of History, and Beyond Greg Carey, 2023-01-31 What happens at the end of our lives and of the course of history Will God bring about a just and peaceful world What lies beyond this realm and what can we know of the beings who dwell there In Death the End of History and Beyond Greg Carey offers resources for understanding multiple even conflicting ways that the Bible imagines these ultimate realities Carey opens the Scriptures with a breadth of insight that acknowledges its diversity of viewpoints about what lies beyond the veil centering hope in God's action to bring good out of evil in our lived realities in our personal journeys through death and in visions of resurrection and justice restored An appendix on preaching also invites clergy to help their communities imagine when and how eschatology can inform our lives today

Postmodern, Marxist, and Christian Historical Novels Lynne W. Hinojosa,2022-06-15 Postmodern Marxist and Christian Historical Novels Hope and the Burdens of History argues historical novels can help readers receive the burdens of history meaning both the burdens of the past present and future and the burden of living in time and develop a more robust conception of and concrete practice of hope Since the 1960s historical novels have been a dominant literary genre but they have been influenced primarily not by Christian but by postmodern and marxist thinkers and writers This book provides a theological and literary analysis of all three types of historical novels postmodern marxist and Christian and outlines what each school of thought can learn from each other regarding historical understanding and hope Using J rgen Moltmann s theology of hope and Frank Kermode s literary criticism as a theoretical basis the book offers readings of novels by Julian Barnes A S Byatt Kazuo Ishiguro Margaret Atwood Michael Ondaatje Ian McEwan and Ursula LeGuin among others and ends with an extended analysis of Marilynne Robinson's Gilead series A Voice for Justice Seth Kaper-Dale, 2013-11-28 In the decade after 9/11 Rev Seth Kaper Dale did what preachers were doing all across America he entered the pulpit and tried to claim Jesus Christ as the risen one who is ushering in a renewed and restored kingdom even as it seemed that so many nations and special interest groups were claiming power and authority Over the course of a decade many of the sermons directly addressed the great issues through reflection on the biblical narrative Sometimes that interaction resulted in the congregation being moved by faith to enter the fray and to address issues such as war natural disasters sexual orientation economic disparity immigration reform interfaith matters and ecological disaster In short when the Bible met the big issues in congregational space and time the church was transformed in Spirit and made ready for real action In thirty four sermons that go from pre-emptive war to the Arab Spring Seth insists that nothing that happens in real history lies outside the realm of theological reflection and that there is nothing a congregation cannot delve into once it has seen why the particular kingdom message of Jesus Christ is stronger than any other power The Coming Day, 1891 A Consumer's Guide to Hope Ruth O'Lill, 1994 Overcome hopelessness in your life and feel love more fully experience love and faith more fully when things go wrong get beyond the dangers and disappointments in your life eighty eight true stories of people who used hope to fulfill their lives Fortress Commentary on the Bible Margaret Aymer, Cynthia Briggs Kittredge, David A. Sánchez, 2014-10-01 The Fortress Commentary on the New Testament presents a balanced synthesis of current scholarship The contributors bring a rich diversity of perspectives to the task of connecting solid historical critical analysis of Scripture with sensitivity to theological cultural and interpretive issues arising in our encounter with the text The volume includes introductory articles section introductions and individual book articles that explore key sense units through three lenses The Text in Its Ancient Context The Text in the Interpretive Tradition The Text in Contemporary Discussion Comprehensive and useful for preaching teaching and research Zion's Hope, 1910 The Preacher's Analyst, 1881 The Friend, 1888
