June 2013 Frm Past Paper:

China in Africa Suisheng Zhao, 2017-10-02 China's expansion and growing influence in Africa is arguably the most remarkable global political and economic development in the 21st century. China's foray into Africa started in the late 1990s propelled by its desire to obtain new sources of raw materials and energy for its economic growth as well as new markets for its manufactured goods. While China's no political strings attached policy proves attractive to many of African leaders, China has been criticized as neo-colonialist interested solely in stripping Africa of its mineral wealth without proper environmental or social precautions. This book addresses the controversy by exploring the motivations and practices of China's African engagement, providing a comprehensive account of the intensified interactions between China and African states. The first part examines the debate surrounding whether China has pursued a neo-colonialist path in Africa by looking at the perception of China by the locals and the challenges that the intensified relationship has posed for African states. The second part analyses China's strategic motivations to see if Beijing has acquired sustaining power and influence in Africa in competition with the West. The third part focuses on economic and business practices of Chinese companies in Africa as well as China-Africa trade patterns. The articles in this book were originally published in special issues of the Journal of Contemporary China.

Saudi Arabia in a Multipolar World Zakir Hussain, 2016-04-14 The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia has established itself as the twelfth largest economy in the world, the largest West Asian economic power, world's largest oil producer and a strong and capable force in international politics, particularly in the Sunni Islamic world. However, at present it is at crossroads. Should it continue as a kingdom or usher in the process of inclusive political representation? This volume answers such questions and explores how the state is coping with domestic, regional and global developments to remain relevant in the changing times. It provides a holistic overview of a slew of economic, political, cultural, military and security policy measures that have been initiated by the government. The work also offers a detailed analysis of Saudi Arabia's relations with three significant powers: USA, China and India, and how they are evolving under new geopolitical and geostrategic dynamics. This book will interest strategists, policymakers, researchers and students of international relations, geopolitics, political science and political economy as well as the informed reader. The Future of Mobility Liisa

Ecola, Johanna Zmud, Kun Gu, Peter Phleps, Irene Feige, 2015-07 Researchers developed two scenarios to envision the future of mobility in China in 2030. Economic growth, the presence of constraints on vehicle ownership and driving and environmental conditions differentiate the scenarios. By making potential long-term mobility futures more vivid, the team sought to help decisionmakers at different levels of government and in the private sector better anticipate and prepare for change.

Management of International Institutions and NGOs

Eduardo Missoni,Daniele Alesani,2023-08-31 This second edition of Management of International Institutions and NGOs covers all key topics in global governance from a unique management perspective It analyzes the management challenges associated with international cooperation rather than the more commonly explored political or economic lenses This text is structured to enable students to connect theory with practice beginning with the main management frameworks developed in the context of corporate and national public nonprofit organizations and adapting them to the specificity of international institutions and international non governmental organizations This leads to the identification of a tailored approach to international organization management based on their institutional and operational settings stakeholder groups core business staff profiles and financial arrangements The authors then connect this theory with practice by linking frameworks to several case studies and best practices of organizations currently experimenting with management systems and tools with case studies including the World Bank and the Gates Foundation This edition has been extensively revised and updated with an expanded conceptual framework inclusive of systemic theories of organization new cases throughout and new chapters on leadership supply chain and operations and human centered digitization This comprehensive textbook is a must own resource for students and academics involved with studying and working with international organizations

Storying the Public Intellectual Pat Sikes,Yvonne Novakovic,2019-10-17 Storying the Public Intellectual Commentaries on the Impact and Influence of the Work of Ivor Goodson offers a critical commentary on Goodson s work that avoids hagiography whilst recognising the global reach of his scholarship With contributors from around the world those who have collaborated with him or those who have taken up his work the book provides the sort of social and historical contextualising that Goodson has always advocated The accounts in this collection highlight how Goodson s integration of moral imperatives into strategically responsive scholarship can provide a useful roadmap when negotiating a path through the contemporary academic research landscape By using his historian s orientation and sensibilities he is able to get to the heart of the logics of schooling By connecting with other scholars and researchers around the world he exposes how the global neo liberal project plays out in particular settings and so challenges pervasive understandings about the meaning of global and the power of the neo liberal project itself This book is ideal reading for academics scholars and researchers in the field of education including those involved in initial and in service teacher education

Memorialising the Holocaust in Human Rights Museums Katrin

Antweiler, 2023-04-27 Honourable Mention in the Best First Book Award of the Memory Studies Association 2025 This book provides an analysis of the forms and functions of Holocaust memorialisation in human rights museums by asking about the impact of global memory politics on how we imagine the present and the future It compares three human rights museums and their respective emplotment of the Holocaust and seeks to illuminate how in this specific setting memory politics simultaneously function as future politics because they delineate a normative ideal of the citizen subject its set of values and aspirations for the future that of the historically aware human rights advocate More than an ethical practice engaging with the Holocaust is used as a means of asserting one's standing on the right side of history the memorialisation of the Holocaust has thus become a means of governmentality a way of governing contemporary citizen subjects The linking of public memory of the Holocaust with the human rights project is often presented as highly beneficial for all members of what is often called the global community Yet this book argues that this specific constellation of memory also has the ability to function as an exercise of power and thus runs the risk of reinforcing structural oppression With its novel theoretical approach this book not only contributes to Memory Studies but also connects Holocaust memory to Studies of Global Governmentality and the debate on decolonising memory politics
