Wealth Creation in the World's Largest Mergers and Acquisitions B. Rajesh Kumar, 2018-11-29 This book highlights research based case studies in order to analyze the wealth created in the world's largest mergers and acquisitions M A This book encourages cross fertilization in theory building and applied research by examining the links between M A and wealth creation Each chapter covers a specific case and offers a focused clinical examination of the entire lifecycle of M A for each mega deal exploring all aspects of the process The success of M A are analyzed through two main research approaches event studies and financial performance analyses The event studies examine the abnormal returns to the shareholders in the period surrounding the merger announcement The financial performance studies examine the reported financial results of acquirers before and after the acquisition to see whether financial performance has improved after merger The relation between method of payment premium paid and stock returns are examined The chapters also discuss synergies of the deal cost and revenue synergies Mergers and acquisitions represent a major force in modern financial and economic environment Whether in times of boom or bust M As have emerged as a compelling strategy for growth The biggest companies of modern day have all taken form through a series of restructuring activities like multiple mergers Acquisitions continue to remain as the quickest route companies take to operate in new markets and to add new capabilities and resources The cases covered in this book highlights high profile M As and focuses on the wealth creation for shareholders of acquirer and target firms as a financial assessment of the merger's success The book should be useful for finance professionals corporate planners strategists and managers , The Future of Global Financial Services Robert E. Grosse, 2009-02-09 This book explores the future of the financial services industry giving readers an idea of the kinds of institutions and services that will survive in the early twenty first century An informative and provocative exploration of the future of the financial services industry Focuses on likely changes in the near future such as greater use of the Internet for banking transactions and the increasing globalization of financial services Points to the probable disappearance of the insurance sector as a separate industry Describes changing conditions in key financial centres especially the US the UK Germany Japan and Switzerland Make It Bigger Paula Scher, 2002-08 Scher reveals her thoughts on design practice drawing on her experiences as a leading designer in the USA The book includes a survey of Scher's work from her designs as art director at Columbia Records to her identity for New York's Public Theater Cultural Anthropology John H. Bodley, 2011-04-16 This introductory text introduces basic concepts in cultural anthropology by comparing cultures of increasing scale and focusing on specific universal issues throughout human history Cultural materials are presented in integrated ethnographic case studies organized by cultural and geographic areas to show how ideological social organization and material features fit together in specific sociocultural systems John H Bodley explicitly seeks a balance between ecological materialist and cultural ideological explanations of sociocultural systems while stressing the importance of individual power seeking and human agency Part One examines domestic scale autonomous tribal cultures Part Two presents politically organized class based civilizations and ancient empires in the imperial world Part Three surveys global industrial market based civilizations in the contemporary commercial world Cultural Anthropology uniquely challenges students to consider the big questions about the nature of cultural systems
