Song 88

15 min: Family Worship That Refreshes. Interview a family regarding their family worship. Of what does their program consist? How do they determine what to discuss? What tools available on jw.org have they used? How has their program helped them in the ministry? How do they prevent other activities from disrupting their schedule? How have they benefited from their program of family worship?

15 min: “Improving Our Skills in the Ministry—Responding to Potential Conversation Stoppers.” Discussion. Consider two or three potential conversation stoppers that publishers may encounter, and invite comments on how we might respond. Remind publishers that they will have an opportunity to relate experiences during the week of April 7.

Song 97 and Prayer

Improving Our Skills in the Ministry—Responding to Potential Conversation Stoppers

Why Important: Imagine that you know that a natural disaster is imminent. People will die unless they flee to safety. You go to a neighbor’s home to warn him, but he interrupts you, saying that he is busy. Surely, you would not quickly abandon your efforts to help him! Many in our territory turn us away, not realizing the life-saving value of our message. At the time of our visit, perhaps they are preoccupied. (Matt. 24:37-39) Or maybe they have been prejudiced by untrue rumors. (Matt. 11:18, 19) They might assume that we are no different from the religions that have produced bad fruitage. (2 Pet. 2:1, 2) If the householder initially is not interested, we should not be quick to give up.

How to Do It:

- Before preaching from house to house, take a few moments to think about potential conversation stoppers that you may encounter and consider how to respond.
- If the householder presents an objection, gently try to continue the conversation. Perhaps you can do that by commending him. For example, if he says that he has his own religion, you might reply, “I was hoping to find someone like you who has an interest in spiritual things.” Sometimes acknowledging the householder’s feelings or circumstances will enable you to continue giving a witness. For instance, if he says that he is busy, you might say: “I understand. But before I leave, I would like to give you this.” Another option is to ask a question if the householder says that he is not interested. You could say, “Do you mean that you are not interested in the Bible, or is it religion in general that does not interest you?”
- Use good judgment. Remember that Jehovah does not force people to listen. (Deut. 30:19) Everyone must carry his own load of spiritual responsibility. (Gal. 6:5) If the householder is adamant, it is best to take our leave. By demonstrating respect for his feelings, we may open the door for another publisher to give a witness in the future. —1 Pet. 3:15.

Try This During the Month:

- When you encounter a potential conversation stopper, after leaving the householder, discuss with your partner how you might have responded in a better way.

David Heywood

May 2014 Kingdom Ministry:

Kingdom Learning David Heywood ,2017-06-23 For generations most churchgoers have been encouraged to see the responsibility for the life and mission of the church in the hands of the trained clergy A church embracing God s call to mission requires these same worshipers to see themselves as missionary disciples with a vital part to play in the church s ministry How is a change of this magnitude to be accomplished Drawing on the discipline of adult education and his own research into the way people learn David Heywood explains how churches can become learning communities in which people grow as disciples and find their place in a collaborative pattern of ministry He challenges the prevailing approach to ministerial training as overly theoretical and individualistic and points towards a model of training based around shared reflection on practice

NATO and the Russian War in Ukraine Janne Haaland Matlary, Rob Johnson, 2024-03-21 For three decades after the Cold War NATO member states no longer faced a major threat and focussed on out of area operations They took the opportunity to reduce defence spending and foster their own national defence industries interoperability was limited to air and maritime missions on a small scale The 2014 Russian annexation of Crimea and war by proxy in eastern Donbass was a wake up call while China s creeping seizure and fortification of islands in the South China Sea as well as its relentless acquisition of Western technologies similarly alerted the Western leadership to a less benign strategic environment But the real shift occurred in 2022 China and Russia not only announced their unlimited friendship but made clear their intention to reduce American hegemony by breaking up the NATO alliance and its Pacific equivalents This volume is the first account of the challenges and solutions for so called strategic integration in this coercive global situation The contributors show thematically and through selected national case studies how strategic integration and interoperability are conceived debated problematised and resolved The chapters are written with specific reference to the illegal Russian invasion of Ukraine which has galvanised a new era of integration and alliance cooperation within NATO
