Immigration and Children's Literature Wilma Robles-Melendez, Audrey Henry, 2023-06-29 This book explores the issues faced by immigrant children through the lens of children's literature. The authors employ the UN convention of the Rights of the Child, the lens of equity and Freire's principles of critical consciousness as a framework for analysing children's literature and immigration. They focus on circumstances and experiences of immigration from the perspective of young children who are leaving their homelands and growing up as immigrants. The book focuses primarily on children from birth to 8 years old but with crossover and implications for older children. The chapters reveal the social, economic and political issues faced by child immigrants, refugees and asylum seekers throughout the global context, viewed through and alongside children's literature. The book provides suggestions for the implementation of children's literature in the curriculum and provides tools for educators and researchers working with immigrant and refugee children, showing how they can better understand their students and families. A variety of children's literature is covered, including analysis of works by Jairo Buitrago, Yanksook Choi, Sandra LeGuen, Rosemary McCartney, Bao Phi and Jeanette Winter. The Bibliographer's Manual of English Literature William Thomas Lowndes, 1890 Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum. Department of Printed Books, 1902 British Museum Catalogue of printed Books, 1889 The Symbolist Movement in the Literature of European Languages Anna Balakian, Anna Elizabeth Balakian, 1984 Edited by Anna Balakian, this volume marks the first attempt to discuss Symbolism in a full range of the literatures written in the European languages. The scope of these analyses, which explore Latin America, Scandinavia, Russia, Poland, Hungary, Serbia, Czechoslovakia and Bulgaria, as well as West European literatures, continues to make the volume a valuable reference today. As Ren Wellek suggests in his historiographic contribution, the fifty-one contributors not only make us think afresh about individual authors who are giants but also draw us to reassess schools and movements in their local as well as international contexts. Reviewers comment that this copious and intelligently structured anthology, divided into eight parts, traces the conceptual bases and emergence of an international Symbolist movement, showing the spread of Symbolism to other national literatures from French sources as well as the symbiotic transformations of Symbolism through appropriation and amalgamation with local literary trends. Several chapters deal with the relationships between literature and the other arts, pointing to Symbolism at work in painting, music and theatre. Other chapters on the psychological aspects of the Symbolist method connect in interesting ways to a vision of metaphor and myth as virtually musical notation and an experimental emphasis on the play afforded by gaps between words. The volume is a major contribution to the most significant exponents and essential themes of Symbolism. The theoretical, historical and typological sections of the volume help explain why the impact of this important movement of the fin de siècle is still felt today. A Catalogue of Books in the Library of the Society of Solicitors in the Supreme Courts of Scotland Society of Solicitors before the Supreme Courts of Scotland.
