present day social dilemmas and the personal as well as the communal past Regarding Mosley's other genres Larson argues that the science fiction works together portray a future in which race class and gender are completely reimagined yet still subject to an oppressive power dynamic while his erotica asks readers to reconsider the dynamics of power and control but in a more personal even intimate context Similarly in Mosley's nongenre fiction stories are revived through a reconnection with the past a reclaiming of cultural heritage and lineage and a rejection of classist visions of power Finally Mosley's nonfiction which persuades his audience to act through writing humanitarian efforts or social uprising offers a mix of lessons aimed at guiding readers through the same questions that inform his fiction writing By the Book Pamela Paul, 2014-10-28 Sixty five of the world's leading writers open up about the books and authors that have meant the most to them These wide ranging interviews are conducted by Pamela Paul the editor of the The New York Times Book Review featuring personalities as varied as David Sedaris Hilary Mantel Michael Chabon Khaled Hosseini Anne Lamott and James Patterson These questions and answers admit us into the private worlds of these authors as they reflect on their work habits reading preferences inspirations pet peeves and recommendations By the Book contains the full uncut interviews reflecting a range of experiences and observations that deepens readers understanding of the literary sensibility and the writing process
