Poems Ella Wheeler Wilcox, 2019-01-10 Ella Wheeler Wilcox November 5 1850 October 30 1919 was an American author and poet Her works include Poems of Passion and Solitude which contains the lines Laugh and the world laughs with you weep and you weep alone Her autobiography The Worlds and I was published in 1918 a year before her death Ella Wheeler was born in 1850 on a farm in Johnstown Wisconsin east of Janesville the youngest of four children The family later moved north of Madison after losing its wealth as the result of her father's failed business aspirations and speculation Wilcox's family held themselves to be intellectuals and a mastery of the nuances of the English language was prized During her childhood Wilcox amused herself by reading books and newspapers which may have influenced her later writing most notably William Shakespeare The Arabian Nights John Gilpin's Ride and Gulliver's Travels in addition to the few other pieces of literature that were to be had in her home Around the age of 8 Wilcox turned to writing poetry as an outlet When she was 13 years old her first poem was published After losing her subscription to The New York Mercury and being unable to afford to resubscribe Wilcox figured that if she could get a piece of literature published she would at least receive a copy of the paper wherein her piece was printed The piece that she submitted is lost to time and Wilcox herself later admitted that she couldn't recall even the topic Wilcox became known as a poet in her own state by the time she graduated from high school Her poem The Way of the World was first published in the February 25 1883 issue of The New York Sun The inspiration for the poem came as she was travelling to attend the Governor's inaugural ball in Madison Wisconsin On her way to the celebration there was a young woman dressed in black sitting across the aisle from her The woman was crying Miss Wheeler sat next to her and sought to comfort her for the rest of the journey When they arrived the poet was so depressed that she could barely attend the scheduled festivities As she looked at her own radiant face in the mirror she suddenly recalled the sorrowful widow It was at that moment that she wrote the opening lines of Solitude Laugh and the world laughs with you Weep and you weep alone For the sad old earth must borrow its mirth But has trouble enough of its own She sent the poem to the Sun and received 5 for her effort It was collected in the book Poems of Passion shortly after in May 1883 In 1884 she married Robert Wilcox of Meriden Connecticut where the couple lived before moving to New York City and then to Granite Bay in the Short Beach section of Branford Connecticut The two homes they built on Long Island Sound along with several cottages became known as Bungalow Court and they would hold gatherings there of literary and artistic friends They had one child a son who died shortly after birth Not long after their marriage they both became interested in theosophy new thought and spiritualism Early in their married life Robert and Ella Wheeler Wilcox promised each other that whoever went first through death would return and communicate with the other Robert Wilcox died in 1916 after over thirty years of marriage She was overcome with grief which became ever more intense as week after week went without any message from him It was at this time that
