By Maya Anthony

The Sky's Blanket

The sky above, a vast blue quilt,
Covers the world, with no guilt.
Clouds are patches, soft and white,
Hugging the earth, day and night.

Sunset stitches, pink and gold,
A tapestry of colors bold.
Night's fabric, dark and deep,
Under which all creatures sleep.

Stars like buttons, shiny and small,
Hold the night sky, so it won't fall.
The moon, a lamp, in this grand tent,
Under the sky's blanket, we're content.

Poetry and the 3-11 Curriculum Virginia Bower, 2022-11-01 Poetry can enable learners to engage, learn and have fun whatever their cognitive, linguistic or social levels and this book provides a great many examples of how this might be achieved. This exciting and innovative text provides a wide range of ideas for using poetry to enhance the early years and primary curricula and therefore the learning experience of all children. Each chapter contains ideas for pedagogy and practice underpinned by research and classroom experience ensuring that practitioners will come away feeling much more confident to teach this genre and better enjoy poetry themselves. Throughout there are discussions around specific pedagogies and practices relating to the use of poetry across the curriculum as well as resources including a wide range of poems from diverse countries and cultures and poems in different languages and activities which can immediately be used in the classroom. Ideas are provided in terms of how poems can be employed in different subject areas to introduce or reinforce concepts, engage children in more challenging concepts, ensure that lessons are fun and engaging and develop children's awareness of other people and places beyond their immediate experience. This book is an extremely powerful combination of informed discussion drawing on ideas from different theoretical perspectives including recent findings from neuroscience and practical suggestions for every classroom. Armed with this text, practitioners will not only have a very strong idea of how to use poetry to enhance their curriculum but also why this is such a compelling genre.      Children's Literature for Health Awareness Anthony L. Manna, Cynthia Wolford Symons, 1992 Provides direction for educators, health professionals, librarians and parents in search of children's literature that addresses the health concerns, needs and problems of children in kindergarten through 8th grade.      Children's Book Corner Judy Bradbury, 2006-07-30 Provides teachers, librarians and parents with tips, techniques, activities and twenty-five read-aloud plans for books that can be used with children in fifth and sixth grade.      Marriage Metaphor and Feminine Imagery in Jer 2:1-4:2 Łukasz Popko, 2015 Jer 2:1-4:2 is a locus classicus of the prophetic marriage metaphor which describes the turbulent relationship between Israel and her God. The literary form of the Book of Jeremiah preserved in the Septuagint LXX invites a new diachronic study of this text. The systematic comparative study of the LXX and the Hebrew MT makes up a substantial part of the present book, ca. 200 pages. The redaction-critical reconstruction follows the literary form thus retrieved. The edition preserved in the MT introduces the marriage metaphor where the earlier text used general feminine imagery or suggested rather a filial relationship. The inspiration for the revision came from the Books of Hosea and Ezekiel. The interpretations specific to the translator of the LXX do not point to any coherent agenda. The earliest passage clearly applying the marriage metaphor were introduced at the latest stages of the redaction history. These results demonstrate the growing importance of the marriage metaphor as well as
