Proceedings of the Second International Nursing Conference "Nursing Profession in the Current Era" (INC 2023) Ahmad Rayan, Nidal Eshah, Ghada Abu Shosha, Latefa Dardas, Kristin Wainwright, 2023-09-30 This is an open access book Nurses are the backbone of any healthcare system Recently the healthcare systems have witnessed various challenges of pandemics nursing shortage limited resources wars an increase in the burden of chronic illnesses and psychiatric disorders and an increase in senior citizens Nurses in all practice settings devote their time to helping people in need to cultivate hope for the survival of humanity Hence the idea of the 2nd International Nursing Conference came to existence from various discussions between the Faculty of Nursing at Zarqa University jointly with the Jordanian Nursing Council and other Nursing Faculties worldwide to shed light on the situation of the nursing profession in present times Holding this conference is an important station for discussion and exchanging views and experiences on the contemporary issues related to various aspects of the nursing profession in light of the challenges facing the health systems worldwide Health and

Educational Success Tebogo Maria Mothiba, Takalani Mutshatshi, Irene Ramavhoya, 2023-12-06 This book discusses health and educational success from a variety of perspectives It discusses the management of various health conditions such as diabetic mellitus epilepsy mental health hepatitis and HIV AIDS It covers a broad range of topics including strategies that can be used in a healthcare setting in communication as well as transmission of knowledge from one generation to another The focus of the chapters is on patients and their families physiotherapy occupational therapy biokinetics nursing medical students and their facilitators educators and institutions of higher education As such this book is relevant to a variety of sectors in health and education Working with indigenous knowledge Fhumulani M. Mulaudzi, Rachel T. Lebesse, 2022 The aim of the book is to assist both local and international scholars in articulating the scholarly discourse on indigenous health attitudes practices and experiences The indigenous lens that was used to generate and disseminate indigenous knowledge in this book will strengthen indigenous scholarship thus making it accessible to a wider audience In addition the information shared in this book will add value for scholars and assist them with the indigenous knowledge needed to address sustainable development goals This book is timeous and topical as the discourse on the decolonisation of the curriculum is widely debated in the higher education space The discourse on the scholarship of indigenous knowledge as the tacit local knowledge that stems from cultural practices within communities has not been well articulated in the current health science education milieu Indigenous knowledge has remained overlooked and undermined for a very long time and the information remains untapped in local communities The scholars who conducted the research on which this book is based unearthed a wealth of knowledge which was tacit in nature and translated it into implicit knowledge that can be documented and shared with other scholars globally This knowledge will assist health care scholars in benefiting from knowledge practices and cultural beliefs that will assist them in health care planning teaching evidence based practice and further research
