The Neighbours of the European Union's Neighbours

Sieglinde Gstöhl, Erwan Lannon, 2016-02-24 Should the European Neighbourhood Policy stop at the borders of the European Union's immediate neighbouring countries This book is the first full length study of the neighbours of the EU's neighbours a concept originally introduced by the European Commission with reference to Saharan Africa the Middle East and Central Asia These regions in the EU's broader neighbourhood are often perceived as an arc of crisis from which manifold challenges emanate for Europe This timely book takes stock of the state of the EU's cooperation with the neighbours of its neighbours and explores how the concept might help promote security stability and prosperity beyond the countries which are formally part of the European Neighbourhood Policy How can the EU create bridges between these regions What instruments does the EU have at its disposal and how can it link them in order to respond to the challenges and overcome the current fragmentation One of the conclusions is the suggestion to consider a pragmatic EU Strategy for the Neighbours of its Neighbours which addresses the needs of the broader EU neighbourhood in a more systematic and consistent manner and helps transform in the long run the arc of crisis into another ring of friends

Parliament. House of Commons, 1904      Specialized Administrative Law of the European Union Herwig C. H. Hofmann, Gerard C. Rowe, Alexander H. Türk, 2018-11-30 This volume deals with the law governing the administrative implementation of European Union public policy Much of this law is specific to individual policy sectors The volume provides a study of such specialized administrative law for more than twenty sectors This cross sectoral approach allows for detailed comparisons of EU administration in diverse policy fields It identifies situations where legal structures and approaches may be unnecessarily duplicated thus indicating where a comprehensive general system could be advantageous for both Union law and policy achievement The comparative nature of the study also draws attention to policy fields which have proven to be testing grounds for approaches adopted subsequently in other areas In addition the work highlights the distinctive highly networked and strongly cooperative character of EU administration as a reflection of and a foundation for the operative nature of the European Union as a whole      Complex Political Decision-Making Peter Bursens, Christ'l De Landtsheer, Luc Braeckmans, Barbara Segaert, 2016-11-18 Political and societal elites are increasingly confronted with complex environments in which they need to take collective decisions Decision makers are faced with policy issues situated at different intertwined levels which need to be negotiated with different actors The negotiation and decision making processes raise issues of legitimacy leadership and communication Modern societal systems are not only affected by horizontal specialization and diversity but also by a vertical expansion of governance layers The national level is no longer the sole or even the most important level of governance In these complex environments cognitive abilities and personalities of political and societal elites have gained importance This book addresses the impact of an increasingly complex environment on the legitimacy and transparency of politics on the role of leadership and political personality and on motivated images rhetoric and communication Examining how these issues interact at the macro and theoretical level the types of problems decision makers face and how they communicate ideas with their audiences it brings together leading experts in political psychology law and political science to bridge the gap in the way these disciplines explore the issue of complex decision making

The Images of the Consumer in EU Law Dorota Leczykiewicz, Stephen Weatherill, 2016-01-28 This book consists of contributions exploring from different perspectives the images of the consumer in EU law The images of the consumer form the foundation for various EU policies more or less directly oriented towards the goal of consumer protection The purpose of the volume is to establish what visions of the consumer there are in different contexts of EU law whether they are consistent and whether EU law's engagement with consumer related considerations is sincere or merely instrumental to the achievement of other goals The chapters discuss how consumers should be protected in EU contract competition free movement and trade mark law They reflect on the limits of the consumer empowerment rationale as the basis for EU consumer policy The chapters look also at the variety of concerns consumers might have including the cost of goods and services access to credit ethical questions of consumption the challenges of excessive choice and the possibility to influence the content of regulatory measures and explore the significance of these issues for the EU's legislative and judicial process
