Jadis Chez Aujourd'hui Louis XIV Dans Le Monde Moderne:

Jadis chez aujourd'hui Albert Robida, 2015-01-23 L'œuvre d'Albert Robida est immense caricaturiste dessinateur illustrateur journaliste et romancier il cumule tous les talents et laisse 60 ouvrages 200 livres illustrés des centaines d'articles et plus de 60000 dessins Dans le domaine de l'anticipation sa trilogie sur le XXe siècle le place bien plus que Jules Verne comme un visionnaire Il a critiqué des inventions passées dans la vie quotidienne et pas seulement telles des merveilles extraordinaires et largement uniques comme on les trouve chez Jules Verne Le Vingtième siècle 1883 La Guerre au Vingtième siècle 1887 et Le Vingtième siècle La vie électrique 1890 sont des romans illustrés par l'auteur tonnamment modernes par les thèmes traités la communication les transports l'urbanisation l'émancipation des femmes la guerre totale mécanique et biologique la pharmacie la pollution Voyage travers le temps Les débuts de Robida dans le domaine de l'anticipation datent de l'Exposition universelle de 1867 avec un dessin consacré la machine et c'est celle de 1889 dont l'un des clous est la Tour Eiffel qui inspire Jadis chez aujourd'hui Ce n'est sans doute pas son œuvre se rattachant la science fiction la plus connue pourtant elle traite avec originalité du thème du voyage temporel Il ne s'agit pas de faire voyager des contemporains sur l'axe du temps mais de faire venir le passé notre époque L'argument est simple le savant Célestin Marjolet annonce une attraction extraordinaire faire revivre le passé et malgré le scepticisme de ses amis et des autorités il parvient à amener Louis XIV et sa cour à l'Exposition universelle Toute la saveur du texte repose sur le regard porté par le Roi Soleil et ses courtisans face aux innovations scientifiques architecturales et techniques de l'époque Pour la première fois sont réunies en un seul volume les deux versions de Jadis chez aujourd'hui d'Albert Robida La première version est publiée en feuilleton en mai-juin 1890 dans Le Petit français illustré Cette publication pour la jeunesse est lancée par l'éditeur Armand Colin en 1889 avec le sous-titre Le journal des coliers et des colières Aux côtés d'Albert Robida on trouve notamment Christophe qui publie Le Sapeur Camenber La Famille Fenouillard ou le Savant Cosinus et Henriot auteur et dessinateur en 1910 de Paris en l'an 3000 La seconde version paraît en volume en 1892 dans la collection Bibliothèque du Petit français ditions Armand Colin accompagnée de deux autres courts romans d'Albert Robida Kerbiniou le très mûr et Voyage au pays des saucisses La confrontation des deux versions permet de relever certaines différences qui sont loin d'être anodines Bien sûr le temps de l'Exposition universelle s'loignant Albert Robida a actualisé le texte en gommant des références 1889 Ramenant le texte de huit-six chapitres il concentre la narration sur le décalage entre l'époque contemporaine que le savant Célestin Marjolet souhaite tuer et le regard que le passé livre sur le présent bousculant l'ordre habituel des choses qui veut c'est le cas de l'Histoire que le présent juge le passé et non l'inverse La première version se termine par une pirouette narrative très souvent utilisée dans la première moitié du XIXe siècle par les auteurs d'anticipation tout ceci n'était qu'un rêve comme dans Inoculation du parfait bonheur 1884 La seconde version se clôt par la disparition de la Cour emportée dans les airs bordée d'un ballon suivie de ces mots Prodigieux vnement incroyable aventure C'est un changement de paradigme la fiction
