Resources in Education, 1997 Bibliographic Guide to Education 2003 GK Hall, 2004-10 The Bibliographic Guide to Education lists recent publications cataloged during the past year by Teachers College Columbia University supplemented by publications in the field of education cataloged by The Research Libraries of The New York Public Library selected on the basis of subject headings Non book materials including theses are included in this Guide with the exception of serials All aspects and levels of education are represented in this Guide including such areas as American elementary and secondary education higher and adult education early childhood education history and philosophy of education applied pedagogy international and comparative education educational administration education of the culturally disadvantaged and physically handicapped nursing education and education of minorities and women Also well covered are the administrative reports of departments of education for various countries and for U S states and large cities The Teachers College collection covers over 200 distinct educational systems Works in all languages are included The Bibliographic Guide to Education serves in part as an annual supplement to the Dictionary Catalog of the Teachers College Library Columbia University G K Hall Second Supplement 1973 Third Supplement 1977 The Guide to Catholic Literature Walter Romig, 1965 Books in Print Supplement, 1985 The Reading/writing Connection Carol Booth Olson, 2007 This is an especially well researched and documented text the author's voice is one that is knowledgeable yet does not intend to intimidate She speaks to her audience as a dedicated professional to professional I could only hope that my students would read and retain her words of wisdom Anna L Bolling California State University Stanislaus I haven't seen any books that come close to what Carol Olson has developed Harry Noden Kent State University The illustrations and scanned in documents make Booth Olson's book readable interesting relevant and real life These visuals from actual students help transform her ideas from theory into practice Kathy Bussert Webb The University of Texas at Brownsville This is the only secondary text that I have found to explain and provide authentic examples of reading writing workshop process The activities are practical and motivating Hurray for Olson Donna Uebler Bradley University Now in its second edition The Reading Writing Connection features an array of individual reading and writing strategies activities and mini lessons that teachers can implement in their classrooms Well respected author Carol Booth Olson extends far beyond most books intended for teachers of language arts by integrating reading and writing in creative theory based ways Lauded by students and professors as a clear and straightforward text this revised and updated edition includes plenty of material about teaching the writing process and responding to literature and provides examples of lessons that help readers learn specific strategies Unique in its field The Reading Writing Connection provides student models at middle and high school levels in almost every chapter illustrating actual student responses to reading and writing activities The text is also rich with literary selections giving teachers easy access to the literature featured in the activities and demonstration lessons Features New to the Second Edition Extensive coverage of differentiated instruction for English Language Learners A new chapter entitled Introducing Students to the Cognitive Strategies in Their Mental Tool Kits that summarizes and clarifies students use of cognitive strategies in their thinking An extensive and revised companion website that features reading and writing rubrics student models blackline masters of graphic organizers and much more available at www.ablongman.com/olson2e Educational Times, 1899 Education Outlook, 1898 El-Hi Textbooks and Serials in Print, 2003 Current Index to Journals in Education, 2000 Instructor's Manual to Accompany Literature for Composition Morton Berman, William Burto, 1984

Judith Ortiz Cofer in the Classroom Carol Jago, 2006 Carol Jago offers ways to teach the works of Judith Ortiz Cofer in the high school English classroom In an era of increasing emphasis on standardized testing it can be difficult to add the works of new authors to the high school English curriculum But what if reading the poetry and fiction of Judith Ortiz Cofer or the writing of other multicultural authors engaged your students in such deep reading and writing that their scores went through the roof In this practical guide Carol Jago argues that the curriculum should embrace all kinds of literature because such a curriculum keeps students both engaged and challenged The writing of Puerto Rican American poet essayist and novelist Judith Ortiz Cofer appeals to students of all ethnicities because it speaks to a universal effort to balance the demands of self home and broader culture This short readable and practical guide to teaching her work includes several of Cofer's poems many examples of student writing some modeled on Cofer's poetry and some in response to her fiction guidance on standards based literary analysis a rubric for evaluating the reflective essay and an interview with Cofer by Ren e Shea Writing like Cofer's which reflects students lives no matter what their primary culture draws adolescents into literature and pushes them outside the zone of minimal effort as they more willingly develop their reading writing and critical thinking
