of watershed based agencies across Canada about integrated water management or integrated water resource management. In common with practice in much of the world the responsibility for implementing integrated watershed management in Canada is fragmented. Each province and territory in Canada has developed unique approaches or governance models to guide decision making in that regard. Thus this edited volume enables readers from around the world to gain insight on the best practices in Canada for achieving success and addressing barriers to implement IWM. Although there remains non consensus about how to best approach river basin management some of the main observations include: There is a need to balance a focus on the big picture with scoping the scale and scope of planning activities in order that feasible and effective solutions can be implemented. Three types of integration are popular among the agencies included in the book: i among environment, economy and society; ii interactions between people and the environment; and iii integration or coordination of administrative activities. Much more attention is required to achieving effective engagement from Indigenous communities. The chapters were originally published in a special issue of the International Journal of Water Resources Development.

The Musical Times, 1958 Death to Order Simon Ball, 2025-12-08. A deeply researched history of assassination in the modern world from Franz Ferdinand to Osama bin Laden, Archduke Franz Ferdinand, Leon Trotsky, Reinhard Heydrich, Mahatma Gandhi, John F Kennedy, Martin Luther King, Indira Gandhi, Benazir Bhutto, Osama bin Laden, Qasem Soleimani. Assassination, the murder of a specific individual by an organised conspiracy in pursuit of political ends, has rarely failed to grip the imagination. In this incisive new history Simon Ball shows how targeted political murder has become a tool of democratic states but also a key strategy of those who wish to topple them. Ball introduces us to the techniques of assassination and those who wield them as well as the security regimes that have developed to prevent this violent practice. From the First World War and the age of empire to terrorism and the development of pilotless drones, Death to Order places assassination at the heart of modern political history and shows how it continues to impact our world. The Wines of the Northern Rhône John Livingstone-Learmonth, 2005-12. Includes assessments of thousands of wines with guide dates on when to drink and how long to age them, winemakers' views on what foods best accompany their wines, new vineyard maps for each appellation etc. Thinking Globally and Responding Locally in the Church Thomas Knieps-Port le Roi, Shaji George Kochuthara, David Dawson Vasquez, 2023-07. How has Pope Francis's groundbreaking document on marriage and family, Amoris Laetitia, been implemented in Africa, in Asia, in Latin America? In this volume scholars from across these regions reflect on their experiences, correcting the overly western focus of most reactions to AL. The contributions look at local issues like polygamy in Africa as well as more global issues in a local context like feminism in Indonesia and synodality in Colombia. The reader will find that concerns about marriage and family can be similar throughout the world or specific to different contexts. As a whole the book contributes to a more diverse and revisited catholic understanding of marriage and family.
