☐ Service Meeting:

Song 88

15 min: Family Worship That Refreshes. Interview a family regarding their family worship. Of what does their program consist? How do they determine what to discuss? What tools available on jw.org have they used? How has their program helped them in the ministry? How do they prevent other activities from disrupting their schedule? How have they benefited from their program of family worship?

15 min: “Improving Our Skills in the Ministry—Responding to Potential Conversation Stoppers.” Discussion. Consider two or three potential conversation stoppers that publishers may encounter, and invite comments on how we might respond. Remind publishers that they will have an opportunity to relate experiences during the week of April 7.

Song 97 and Prayer

Improving Our Skills in the Ministry—Responding to Potential Conversation Stoppers

Why Important: Imagine that you know that a natural disaster is imminent. People will die unless they flee to safety. You go to a neighbor’s home to warn him, but he interrupts you, saying that he is busy. Surely, you would not quickly abandon your efforts to help him! Many in our territory turn us away, not realizing the life-saving value of our message. At the time of our visit, perhaps they are preoccupied. (Matt. 24:37-39) Or maybe they have been prejudiced by untrue rumors. (Matt. 11:18, 19) They might assume that we are no different from the religions that have produced bad fruitage. (2 Pet. 2:1, 2) If the householder initially is not interested, we should not be quick to give up.

How to Do It:

- Before preaching from house to house, take a few moments to think about potential conversation stoppers that you may encounter and consider how to respond.
- If the householder presents an objection, gently try to continue the conversation. Perhaps you can do that by commending him. For example, if he says that he has his own religion, you might reply, “I was hoping to find someone like you who has an interest in spiritual things.” Sometimes acknowledging the householder’s feelings or circumstances will enable you to continue giving a witness. For instance, if he says that he is busy, you might say: “I understand. But before I leave, I would like to give you this.” Another option is to ask a question if the householder says that he is not interested. You could say, “Do you mean that you are not interested in the Bible, or is it religion in general that does not interest you?”
- Use good judgment. Remember that Jehovah does not force people to listen. (Deut. 30:19) Everyone must carry his own load of spiritual responsibility. (Gal. 6:5) If the householder is adamant, it is best to take our leave. By demonstrating respect for his feelings, we may open the door for another publisher to give a witness in the future. —1 Pet. 3:15.

Try This During the Month:

- When you encounter a potential conversation stopper, after leaving the householder, discuss with your partner how you might have responded in a better way.

The War for Ukraine

Mick Ryan, 2024-08-13 The Russo Ukraine War is a vital learning opportunity for military strategists across the globe The first and clearest lesson to be gleaned from it is this the soundness of a military's strategy and the nimbleness with which it can adapt to unforeseen circumstances are the two most important factors in deciding victory or defeat The War for Ukraine analyzes the war through these twin lenses of strategy and adaptation detailing how each army has succeeded or failed to plan for and adapt to this twenty first century war Author Mick Ryan examines the foundations of Ukrainian and Russian strategy for their ongoing war looking back over several decades to reveal how both sides have evolved their military strategy and force structure Each has undertaken institutional level reforms of their military and national security enterprises in the decade leading up to this war But because the emergent behavior of military forces after fighting begins cannot be fully predicted these prewar reforms only constitute a starting point for adaptation during the war Part I of the book covers the role of strategic leadership with a focus on evolution of strategy since February 2022 From there the second part of the book delves into how the Ukrainians and Russians have adapted their tactics organizations operational approaches and strategic foundations for war making throughout the conflict Central to this discussion are the ways that regardless of cutting edge technology human elements have remained a crucial deciding factor in Ukraine Ryan shows how good leadership allows a nation to navigate the ambiguity and uncertainty of conflict while poor leadership leaves it vulnerable to surprises Likewise The War for Ukraine offers case studies of the importance of an institution's ability to nurture and reward human learning as it relates to combat The book provides strategists policymakers and military leaders with a basis from which to plan for constant adaption in military organizations General readers of contemporary global conflict will also find The War for Ukraine of great interest

Trade Policy Review ,2021      The Humanitarian Civilian Rebecca Sutton, 2021-02-25 In international humanitarian law IHL the principle of distinction delineates the difference between the civilian and the combatant and it safeguards the former from being intentionally targeted in armed conflicts This monograph explores the way in which the idea of distinction circulates within and beyond IHL Taking a bottom up approach the multi sited study follows distinction across three realms the kinetic realm where distinction is in motion in South Sudan the pedagogical realm where distinction is taught in civil military training spaces in Europe and the intellectual realm where distinction is formulated and adjudicated in Geneva and the Hague Directing attention to international humanitarian actors the book shows that these actors seize upon signifiers of civility in everyday practice To safeguard their civilian status and to deflect any qualities of combatantness that might affix to them humanitarian actors strive to distinguish themselves from other international actors in their midst The latter include peacekeepers working for the UN Mission in South Sudan UNMISS and soldiers who deploy with NATO missions Crucially some of the distinctions enacted cut along civilian civilian lines suggesting that humanitarian actors are longing for something more than civilian status the civilian plus This special status presents a paradox the appeal to the civilian plus undermines general civilian protection yet as the civilian ideal becomes increasingly beleaguered a special civilian status appears ever more desirable However disruptive these practices may be to the principle of distinction in IHL the monograph emphasizes that even at the most normative level there is no bright line distinction to be found      Heart of Public Service: Our institutions ,2015 History of public services in Singapore      The State of Arab Cities 2012 ,2012 The Arab world has played a very important role in the history of urbanization It is the region where urban civilization was born and where urban matters have been addressed for centuries The Arab urban civilization as it has evolved over the past millennium has generated some of the most beautiful cities in the world This publication is the first ever to comprehensively analyze urbanization processes in the Arab States through the review of its four sub regions the Maghreb the Mashreq the Gulf
