Negotiating Identities in Contemporary Africa Toyin Falola, Emmanuel M. Mbah, 2023-08-29 Negotiating Identities in Contemporary Africa Gender Religion and Ethno cultural Identities explores the changing dynamics of identities in Africa with a focus on gender ethno cultural and religious identity Toyin Falola and Emmanuel M Mbah argue that because identity defines who we are as individuals or groups studies on African identities must focus on understanding the changing dynamics in the socio economic and political spheres in the continent These chapters cover subjects such as women s career identity gender roles and knowledge childlessness ethnocentrism and democracy cultural identity through theater Black identity in the diaspora and diasporic consciousness Using existing scholarship the chapters in this edited volume challenge our understanding of what identity entails and provide new discussions on the hitherto politicized historiography of some identities in Africa Regionalization of African Higher Education Jane Knight, Emnet Tadesse Woldegiorgis, 2017-04-17

Growth in the scope scale and importance of higher education regionalization should not be underestimated or ignored Africa like Asia Europe and Latin America is promoting deeper cooperation among higher education bodies and institutions across the continent and focusing more attention on Pan African and sub regional harmonization of policies and programmes This is the first book which brings together diverse scholars and policy experts to examine key aspects and challenges of African higher education regionalization Chapters examine the progress and prospects of core regionalization issues and strategies such as academic mobility quality assurance recognition of qualifications research centres and networks curriculum and competencies and regional academic programmes Other chapters discuss important themes such as the relationship between regionalization internationalization and Africanization historical antecedents and perspectives an analytical model to understand functional organizational and political approaches to Africa s higher education regionalization and the influence of the Bologna process on the African Union s Strategy for the Harmonization of Higher Education Programmes Together these chapters provide a comprehensive overview of efforts by the African Union sub regional higher education associations such as IUCEA SARUA and CAMES Pan African organizations and actors key research networks and centres of excellence and the involvement or dependence on external actors and funders especially from Europe Fundamentally the book asks the question whether higher education regionalization in Africa is more rhetoric than reality It discusses the progress to date on specific themes identifies historical political sustainability and funding challenges and concludes that while the impacts of regionalization efforts have not been fully realized there is cautious optimism for the future Advancing Africa's

Sustainable Development Alain L. Fymat, 2018-11-14 While many African countries lag behind the rest of the industrialised world in scientific and medical research and development the situation is progressively improving This is why the Society for the Advancement of Science in Africa was established to contribute to economic advancement and sustainability through science research education and innovation This book provides a selection of papers from the Advancement of Science in Africa's fourth annual conference. The conference was held under the overarching theme of science technology and innovation in Africa with several important sub themes including but not limited to improving health research and disease surveillance education collaborating in research responding to epidemic diseases with high mortality in Africa and promoting women's interest in science careers. The collection illustrates how although the chapter contributors come from various countries and universities representing their own academic research they all share a common interest in advancing science technology and innovation in Africa.

Contextualizing and Organizing Contingent Faculty Ishmael I. Munene, 2018-02-15

Contextualizing and Organizing Contingent Faculty Reclaiming Academic Labor in Universities seeks to develop a counterculture that eschews the neoliberal ideology and interlocking market values in higher education. More than merely lamenting the disruptive effects of these marketplace values in higher education institutions it develops both theoretical insights and practical organizing strategies pertinent to challenging new academic capitalist values and behaviors. Contributors local and international present cases from various institutions to illuminate how national trends concerning contingent faculty are articulated implemented and challenged at the local level. They present organizing strategies which are analyzed from an interdisciplinary perspective providing a thorough and comprehensive view of the contingent labor movement. This book will provide useful lessons to a broad array of audiences in universities labor movements and national and local governments.

Annual Review of Comparative and International Education 2022 Alexander W. Wiseman, 2023-12-14

Reflecting on ten prolific years of publication both volumes of the 2022 Annual Review together present discussions on education trends and directions conceptual and methodological developments research to practice area studies and regional developments and diversification of the field of education.

Science Research and Education in Africa Alain L. Fymat, Joachim Kapalanga, 2017-03-07

For various economic and political reasons many African countries lag behind the rest of the industrialised world in scientific and medical research and development. However the presence of intellectual islands scattered across the continent gives hope that this is only a transient situation on the cusp of undergoing a profound and beneficial change. For this reason the Society for the Advancement of Science in Africa was established to catalyse and contribute to this needed evolution. Its mission is to contribute to Africa's economic advancement and sustainability through science research education and innovation. This book provides a selection of papers from the Advancement of Science in Africa's third annual conference. The conference was held under the overarching theme of science research and education in Africa with several important sub themes including but not limited to improving health research and disease surveillance education epidemic diseases with high mortality promoting women's interest in science careers fostering youth development with science education. The collection illustrates how although the chapter contributors come from various countries and universities representing their own academic research they all share a common interest in advancing science research and education in Africa.
