Kerry James Marshall Kerry James Marshall, Robert Storr, Angela Choon, 2015 With a career spanning almost three decades Kerry James Marshall is well known for his complex and multilayered portrayals of youths interiors nudes housing estate gardens land and seascapes all of which synthesize different traditions and genres while seeking to counter stereotypical representations of black people in society Working across various mediums from paintings to comic style drawings to sculptural installations photographs and videos the artist conflates actual and imagined events from African American history integrating a range of stylistic influences to address the limited historiography of black art Produced on the occasion of Marshall s first exhibition at David Zwirner in London and designed by JNL Design in Chicago Look See features beautiful reproductions of every painting on view in the show all of them brand new compositions as well as numerous details and preparatory drawings installation photographs and new scholarship by Robert Storr and Hamza Walker As suggested by the show s title these portraits use the etymological differences between looking and seeing as their point of departure featuring subjects whose dissociated stares seem as defiant as they are mystifying In keeping with his signature approach Marshall has painted his figures in strikingly opaque black pigments both fashioning and abstracting their presences in order to assimilate the limitations and contradictions of style subject and chronology inherent in art historical narratives written from a white Western perspective Taken all together the range of materials included in Look See constitutes a vibrant and comprehensive portrait of Marshall s original and ever evolving practice Kerry James Marshall Sandra
