“An” Old Testament Commentary for English Readers: Deuteronomy, Joshua, Judges, Ruth, Samuel. 1897 Charles John Ellicott,1897      John Calvin's Bible Commentaries On The Book Of Joshua John Calvin, Calvin produced commentaries on most of the books of the Bible His commentaries cover the larger part of the Old Testament and all of the new excepting Second and Third John and the Apocalypse His commentaries and lectures stand in the front rank of Biblical interpretation The Commentary On Joshua was the last literary labor of its venerable Author When he engaged in it his constitution which had never been strong was completely worn out by excessive exertion and almost every line of it must have been dictated to his amanuensis during momentary intervals of relief from severe bodily pain On this point we possess authentic documents which leave no room for doubt Such are the circumstances in which this Commentary was composed and it is impossible in reflecting on them not to admire the indomitable energy which Calvin displayed in proceeding with his task and in meeting the remonstrances of those who would have withdrawn him from it with the heroic exclamation Would you that the Lord when He comes should find me idle A Work written at such a time and in such a spirit might justly claim exemption from criticism but it has no need of indulgence and can well afford to be judged by its own intrinsic merits Viewed merely as an intellectual effort it displays all the excellencies which characterize the other Commentaries of its distinguished Author viewed in a higher and better light it is his dying bequest to the Church a solemn ratification of the whole System of Doctrine which he had so long so earnestly and so successfully promulgated      The Old Testament ; According to the Authorized Version: Historical books: Joshua to Esther ,1882      The English Version of the Polyglot Bible ,184?      The Holy Bible, In the Authorized Version: pt.
