The State of African Cities, 2014 United Nations Publications, 2015-09-10 The African continent is currently in the midst of simultaneously unfolding and highly significant demographic economic technological environmental urban and socio political transitions Africa's economic performance is promising with booming cities supporting growing middle classes and creating sizable consumer markets Despite significant overall growth the continent continues to suffer under very rapid urban growth accompanied by massive urban poverty and many other social problems These seem to indicate that the development trajectories followed by African nations since post independence may not be able to deliver on the aspirations of broad based human development and prosperity for all This report therefore argues for a bold re imagining of prevailing models in order to steer the ongoing transitions towards greater sustainability based on a thorough review of all available options That is especially the case since the already daunting urban challenges in Africa are now being exacerbated by the new vulnerabilities and threats associated with climate and environmental change

Understanding Corruption Mason C. Hoadley, Neelambar Hatti, 2020-11-15 This volume together scholars specializing in different parts of the world to give us a comparative understanding of the persistence of corruption in some societies The reader is privileged to learn from the many global variations that are skilfully presented for further analyses Corruption is a salient feature of human condition in any organized society Further where risks are low and the returns high corruption is almost inevitable Apart from this traditional public behaviour comes precariously close to what in the West might amount to corrupt practices Bureaucratic corruption should be understood in the light of a clash of morality on the one hand and legality on the other There is a contradiction between traditional values which are held in respect and are a part of everyday life of a people and norms of the larger society which stand out as compelling forces The idea of the modern division between the public and private office is alien to a traditional culture and corruption finds space when this division is not strictly observed Seven essays in this volume cover a range of countries which include India South Africa Nigeria Zimbabwe and Indonesia As the essays unfold themselves the problem of corruption takes on an added dimension that of a legacy left behind by colonialism Please note This title is co published with Social Science Press New Delhi Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka Geomatica ,1999
