Issues of Governance, Security, and Development in Contemporary Africa Mohamed Saliou Camara, Alem Hailu, Sabella O. Abidde, 2023-12-15 Governance security and development are three critical components of a dialectical nexus that is both dominant and determinant for any objective and fruitful quest for the understanding of the trajectory of a country a region or in the case of Africa a continent from a colonial past to a neocolonial and meta colonial present and toward a future of strategic optimal independence and self reliance That colonial past and the ensuing neocolonial and meta colonial present have made these critical components and the dialectical nexus that they form particularly challenging for the African continent For this reason Issues of Governance Security and Development in Contemporary Africa offers an in depth interdisciplinary analysis of the challenges that contemporary Africa faces within these critical areas as well as the resources and prospects that the continent possesses and can leverage to overcome the said challenges Using case studies involving a range of countries across the continent Mohamed Saliou Camara Alem Hailu and Sabella O Abidde argue that Africa needs to decolonize the terms of reference that guide its nation building statecraft and national development agenda in ways that will facilitate the establishment of viable systems of governance and security and the promotion of genuine development

Theme ,2014 Higher Education and Policy for Creative Economies in Africa Roberta Comunian, Brian J. Hracs, Lauren England, 2020-11-04 The book reflects on the role of the creative economies in a range of African countries namely Ghana Kenya Nigeria South Africa and Uganda Chapters explore how creative economies emerge and can be supported in African countries The contributors focus on two key dimensions the role of higher education and the role of policy Firstly they consider the role of higher education and alternative forms of specialised education to reflect on how the creative aspirations of students and future creative workers of these countries are met and developed Secondly they explore the role of policy in supporting the agendas of the creative economy taking also into consideration the potential historical dimension of policy interventions and the impact of a lack of policy frameworks The book concludes by reflecting on how these two pillars of creative economy development which are usually taken for granted in studying creative economies in the global north need to be understood with their own specificity in the context of our selected case studies in Africa This book will be of interest to students scholars and professionals researching the creative economies in Africa across the humanities and social sciences All the royalties from the publication of this book will be
