Biblical Theology of prayer in the Old Testament Albert J. Coetsee,Francois P. Viljoen,2023-08-31 Prayer is a major topic within Christian theology The biblical text has various references to various recorded and reported prayers In fact references to prayer are found within the rich diversity of the various books corpora and genres of Scripture As can be expected much has been written about prayer in the biblical text. However, a comprehensive Biblical Theology dealing with the concept of prayer in Scripture has not been published before, and this book intends to fill this gap, assuming that such an approach can provide a valuable contribution to the theological discourse on prayer and related concepts. This book aims to investigate prayer and its related elements, including worship, praise, thanksgiving, adoration, petition, intercession, lament, and confession in the Old Testament, on a book-by-book or corpus-by-corpus basis. The investigation follows a Biblical Theological approach, reading the Old Testament on a book-by-book basis in its final form to uncover the Old Testament's overarching theology of prayer, understanding the parts in relation to the whole. By doing this, the discrete nuances of the prayers of the different Old Testament books and corpora can be uncovered, letting the books and corpora speak for themselves. In addition, the advantage of this approach is that it provides findings that can benefit the modern Christian community and contribute to the practice of Reformed theology in Africa. This book is of significant value to scholars. It will inspire scholars to think about prayer and use the Bible as the major prayer handbook in their spiritual lives.

The Book of Joshua Edward Noort, 2012. The Book of Joshua contains the papers of the Colloquium Biblicum Lovaniense 2010 on the Book of Joshua and the Land of Israel. Not for the sake of plurality as such, but as a signal of the state of the art in Joshua research in the post-Noth era, this volume functions as a platform for different approaches in exegetical and historical studies. Text-critical, redaction-critical, and compositional studies, as well as final text reading, are offered. The papers are grouped together in six thematic clusters: Text Versions and Terminology; Tradition, Composition, and Context; History, Archaeology, and Geography; Crossing the Jordan; Jericho and Violence; History of Reception. Starting with the question which text we read MT LXX 4QJoshua, the book engages not only in the recent Pentateuch/Hexateuch debate but also in the problematic fields of divine violence and the land. Therefore, an important section deals with the history of reception, starting with the Book of Maccabees, Philo, Josephus, the New Testament, and ending up with two examples of reception in recent times.
