Purnell, 2022-05-09 The stories in Narrating Estrangement Autoethnographies of Writing Of f Family demonstrate the pain anguish and even relief felt by those who contemplate estranging or who are estranged whether by choice or circumstance Despite the social assumptions persisting about the everlasting nature of family relationships when people make the complicated and often difficult decision to disconnect from family members they experience shame stigma and isolation because of social pressures to maintain those relationships at all costs Each contributor uses the act of storytelling and the autoethnographic mode of scholarship and writing to find clarity in their individual unique and complex situations Several authors explorations restore some of what they have lost through estrangement such as a sense of identity emotional health and well being and feelings of belonging due to the breakdowns in social and family support systems meant to be unconditional and permanent The stories display the wide array of reasons why family members become estranged delving into different types of estrangement permanent and or intermittent In doing so the writers in this book demonstrate that family relationships are neither easily categorized nor neatly ended their impact on an individual s life continues and changes even in and through estrangement This book adds to the ongoing scholarly conversations about family estrangement for students and researchers interested in autoethnography and qualitative inquiry in a wide range of disciplines in the social sciences healthcare and communication studies Farmers and Consumers
