Living Theatre A History Of Theatre 6th Edition:

Living Theatre Edwin Wilson, Alvin Goldfarb, 2017 Living Theatre: A History Edwin Wilson, Alvin Goldfarb, 2006-12-11

Living Theatre A History conveys the excitement and variety of theatre throughout time as well as the dynamic way in which our interpretation of theatre history is informed by contemporary scholarship. Rather than presenting readers with a mere catalog of historical facts and figures, it sets each period in context through an exploration of the social, political, and economic conditions of the day, creating a vivid study of the developments in theatre during that time. Cheikh Anta Diop's Transdisciplinary Legacy Victor Oguejiofor Okafor, 2026-01-22. This book highlights the transdisciplinary legacy of Cheikh Anta Diop's epistemology, demonstrating its continuing impact on contemporary Africology, which is also known as Black Studies. Diop's works in the second half of the 20th century were foundational to the discipline of Africology. Exposing a stain of cultural and racial bias in Eurocentric Egyptology, Diop argued that ancient Egyptian civilization, in fact, had deep cultural and linguistic connections with African societies south of the Sahara. This book argues that transdisciplinarity was at the heart of Diop's arguments, as his work drew from history, anthropology, linguistics, sociology, economics, osteology, and physics. This book argues that even now, transdisciplinary approaches remain essential to the discipline of Africology, sometimes referred to as Black Studies, Africana Studies, Pan African Studies, African Global Studies, or African American Studies. In this book, the contributors consider how Diopian transdisciplinary epistemic approaches continue to combat racial bias and restore the global historical and cultural significance of Africa. Highlighting the significance of Africa's usable past, as outlined by Diop, this book is an important read for researchers across African Studies, Africology, Black Studies, History, World Civilizations, Intercultural Studies, Africa-focused Think Tanks, and policy makers across the African world.
