Living Religions Mary Pat Fisher, 2008      Living Religions Myreligionlab With Pearson Etext Standalone Access Card Mary Pat Fisher, 2011-10-06 This 12 month access code card gives you access to all of MyReligionLab's tools and resources including a complete eText of your book. You can also buy immediate access to MyReligionLab with Pearson eText online with a credit card at www.myreligionlab.com. Living Religions A Brief Introduction 3e provides an updated and concise introduction to what is living and significant in the religions of the modern world. This survey explores the historical development and teachings of traditional faiths, indigenous religions, and new religious movements, and considers how the contemporary beliefs and practices of each of these traditions have evolved.      Ethics for Governance B. P. Mathur, 2015-06-12 This book provides a comprehensive overview of India's public services and bureaucratic systems and explores why widespread corruption and inefficient delivery have slowed development. It discusses the underlying reasons for the prevailing inefficiency in public services, examines the complex linkages between ethics-based public service, India's cultural and spiritual heritage, and its current economic development model, and outlines ways to create an ethics code and an environment that is conducive to better administration and good governance. Lucid, accessible, and meticulously researched, this will prove essential to scholars and students of public administration, governance studies, and political science, particularly bureaucrats, policy makers, and civil service aspirants.      Living Religions, Books a la Carte Edition Plus New Myreligionlab with Etext -- Access Card Package Mary Pat Fisher, 2013-02-08 Modern religions in today's changing world. Living Religions emphasizes the personal consciousness of believers and their own accounts of their religion and relevance in the present day. Mary Pat Fisher considers how the contemporary beliefs and practices of each of these traditions has evolved and explores the changing nature of each religion. The ninth edition focuses on cultural customs, popular spiritual practices, mixtures of religions, and varieties of religions. Expanded coverage of women, including women's voices and contributions, is woven into the discussion of each religion. Living Religions provides a sympathetic approach to the historical teachings of traditional faiths, indigenous religions, and new religious movements. The text follows a clear and straightforward account of the development, doctrines, and practices of the major faiths followed today. MyReligionLab is an integral part of the Fisher program. Key learning applications include MyReligionLibrary, Closer Look tours, and a personalized study plan. A better teaching and learning experience. This program will provide a better teaching and learning experience for you and your students. Here's how: Personalize Learning MyReligionLab is an online homework tutorial and assessment program. It helps students prepare for class and helps instructors gauge individual and class performance. Improve Critical Thinking Review questions throughout the text encourage readers to think critically about religion. Engage Students Diverse stories and cultural images bring religion to life. Support Instructors The most comprehensive set of instructional materials available. Instructor resources reinforce and enliven the study of world religions. This Book a la Carte Edition is an unbound, three-hole punched loose leaf version of the textbook and provides students the opportunity to personalized their book by incorporating their own notes and taking the portion of the book they need to class all at a fraction of the bound book price

Non-Western Educational Traditions Timothy G. Reagan, 2004-09-22 This text provides a brief yet comprehensive overview of a number of non Western approaches to educational thought and practice Its premise is that understanding the ways that other people educate their children as well as what counts for them as education may help us think more clearly about some of our own assumptions and values and to become more open to alternative viewpoints about important educational matters The value of this informative mind opening text for preservice and in service teacher education courses is enhanced by Questions for Discussion and Reflection and Recommended Further Readings included in each chapter New in the Third Edition Chapter 2 Conceptualizing Culture I We and The Other is new to this edition It is a response to feedback about the problems inherent in our general discourse about culture and in addition provides an example of a culture that is near to us but nevertheless alien the culture of the Deaf World Chapter 9 which deals with Islam and traditional Muslim education has been substantially revised The subtitle of the Third Edition has been changed to Indigenous Approaches to Educational Thought and Practice reflecting not so much a change in the emphases found in the book but rather a recognition of the growing scholarly interest in indigenous peoples their languages cultures and histories Various points throughout the text have been expanded and clarified and chapters have been updated as needed Then We'll Sing a

New Song Mary Ann Clark, 2012 This book examines how three African kingdoms that were involved in the slave trade specifically shaped religion in America and how they may have had an influence on contemporary American beliefs and culture Living Religions Plus NEW MyReligionLab with Pearson EText --Access Card Package Mary Pat
