A Critical Dictionary of English Literature and British and American Authors Living and Deceased from the Earliest Accounts to the Latter Half of the Nineteenth Century by S. Austin Allibone, 1871 Living Forms Bruce Haley, 2012-02-01 Based on years of archival research in various British and American libraries Living Forms examines the early nineteenth century's fascination with representations of the human form particularly those from the past which having no adequate verbal explanatory text are vulnerable to having their meanings erased by time The author explores a variety of such representations and responses to them including Coleridge's Shakespeare lectures Hazlitt's essays on portraits Keats's poems on mythic and sculpted figures meditations by Byron's Childe Harold on the monuments of Italy Felicia Hemans's verses on monuments to and by women and Shelley's poems and letters on figures from Italy Egypt and other antique lands Haley argues that in what has been called the museum age Romantics sought aesthetically to frame these figures as living forms mental images capable of realization in alternate modes or forms Architecture in Living Structure G.A. The Living Icon in Byzantium and Italy Paroma Chatterjee,2014-03-17 This is the first book to explore the emergence and function of a novel pictorial format in the Middle Ages the vita icon which displayed the magnified portrait of a saint framed by scenes from his or her life The vita icon was used for depicting the most popular figures in the Orthodox calendar and in the Latin West was deployed most vigorously in the service of Francis of Assisi This book offers a compelling account of how this type of image embodied and challenged the prevailing structures of vision representation and sanctity in Byzantium and among the Franciscans in Italy between the eleventh and thirteenth centuries Paroma Chatterjee uncovers the complexities of the philosophical and theological issues that had long engaged both the medieval East and West such as the fraught relations between words and images relics and icons a representation and its subject and the very nature of holy presence
