

Analysis Of Mona Lisa By Leonardo Da Vinci

In our world, we had a lot of famous artists. Whenever people talk about painting one of the few paintings comes to their mind is the Mona Lisa or the Screaming. The painting I am going to discuss in my assignment is Mona Lisa. The historical painting was painted by no other than Leonardo da Vinci. Leonardo da Vinci was born in a Tuscan Hamlet, Vinci and died on May 2, 1519, at the age of 67 in Amboise, Kingdom of France. He considered being the greatest painter of all time. Even those he loves to draw he drew over 30 paintings but only 15 of his paintings survived over time. At the age of nine, he joined apprenticeship school and his teacher Andrea di Cione help him finish some of Leonard's early arts. For example, "Verrocchio's Baptism of Christ", most of the art critics agree that the angel in Verrocchio's Baptism of Christ was made by Leonardo because of the light on face and hair. Not only that, but some critics also believe that Leonardo was also drawn that background of the art. He did not only have interest in drawing or painting, apart from the art he was interested in the other area of studies like science, mathematics, and music.

Mona Lisa was also known as La Joconde or La Giocondo because many art critics believe that the Mona Lisa portrait is a portrait of Lisa Gherardini, the wife of Francesco del Giocondo. One story behind the portrait is that the couple requested the painting at their second childbirth. It has been thought that even though the portrait was painted between 1503 to 1506 but Leonard had continued working on it as late as 1517. The portrait later bought by the France King, Francois. Presently the painting is owned by the French Government and the painting is in the museum in 'Musée de Louvre'. There are many theories behind the portrait some believe that the woman sitting in the portrait is
