

11. Down in the main square, a hard-working peasant was selling charms and talismans to ward off the evil eye.
12. After the prisoner had been found guilty of treason, he was led before a firing squad and summarily executed.
13. In Grandmother's day, standards of propriety required that a young lady wear a hat and gloves when she went out in public.
14. Any book on chess strategy usually discusses the standard opening moves, such as the "knight's gambit."
15. To be really convincing on stage, an opera singer must possess both vocal and histrionic abilities.
16. As an employee of the local polling service last summer, I had to accost people on the street and ask their opinions.
17. The tons of incendiary material ignited and turned the waste disposal plant into a roaring inferno.
18. The suffix -ling often has a(n) pejorative connotation, as in the word princeling, derived from prince.
19. During the rainy season, the highway sank at so many points that its surface began to undulate like the track for a roller coaster.
20. On the return trip, we cut straight across the meadows rather than take the more devious path along the river.

Writing Words in Action

1. Look back at "Constructing the New York City Subway" (pages 22-23). Think about how the completion of the subway changed the lives of city residents. Write an essay in which you analyze the impact—both positive and negative—of this new mode of transportation on individuals and businesses in New York City at the turn of the century. Use at least two details from the passage and three unit words to support your view.
2. According to a 2005 Gallup Poll, most Americans consider electricity as the greatest invention of all time, with the automobile and the printing press ranking well behind. Do you agree? Write an essay of at least three paragraphs in which you explain what your top choice is and why. Support your answer with specific examples from your observations, studies, reading (refer to pages 22-23), or personal experience. Use at least three words from this unit in your essay.
