Europe is the name for a scintillating variety of historically emerged concepts constantly developed and discussed over time. Its complexity and fuzziness is reflected in a multitude of myths, topos, symbols, and boundaries, which all constitute shared knowledge of the concept of EUROPE and which continue to influence attempts to de- and re-construct European identity. The case studies collected in this volume investigate the competing concepts of Europe in political and public discourses from a wide range of perspectives, e.g. frame semantics, discourse linguistics, multimodal analysis, focusing on the following aspects: How is EUROPE conceptualised, re-negotiated, and legitimised by different political actors, political bodies, and institutions? How does the European idea change throughout history, and how is the re-emerging idea of nationality evaluated?
