Congress, 1951 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 Contemporary Problems in the United States Columbia University, 1934 Russia Ira W. Lieberman, 1995 This book contains a collection of papers prepared at a World Bank conference held in June 1994 on privatization and private sector development in Russia It reviews the privatization achievements of Russian reformers over the past three years discusses emerging second tier privatization and post privatization issues and summarizes the key themes in the papers presented at the conference Between November 1991 and June 1994 1 between 12 000 and 14 000 medium size and large enterprises had been transferred to private ownership 2 this set of firms employed more than fourteen million people or about half of those employed in Russia s industrial sector 3 about forty million Russian citizens owned shares in privatized firms or investment funds Although the Russian privatization program has achieved impressive results the transfer of ownership mainly to insiders is only a first step This must be followed by equally essential second steps to facilitate ownership of privatized firms to external core investors who will bring
