Late-colonial French Cinema Mani Sharpe, 2022-10-19 Deploying the term late colonial to describe a body of largely French films made during and in response to the Algerian War of Independence 1954 1962 this book revolves around one question what is late colonial French cinema generating two answers Firstly Sharpe argues that late colonial cinema represents a formally and thematically important yet unappreciated tendency in French cinema one that has largely been overshadowed by a scholarly focus on the French New Wave Secondly Sharpe contends that whilst late colonial French cinema cannot be seen as a coherent cinematic movement school of filmmaking or genre it can be seen as a coherent ethical trend with many of the fifteen central case studies explored in Late colonial French Cinema filtering the Algerian War of Independence through a discourse of redemptive pacifism Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumi_re screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumi_re brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director s entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual s education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age Jean Renoir and René Clair to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard Joan of Arc and Christine de Pizan's Ditié Karen Green,2021-06-29 Grounded in a close reading of the records of Joan s trial and rehabilitation on the early letters announcing her arrival at Chinon and on three literary works Christine de Pizan s Diti Martin le Franc s Le Champion des dames and Alain Chartier s Trait de l Esperance this controversial work argues that serious historians should accept that Joan was trained It proposes that she was identified and taught how to behave in the expectation of the fulfillment of the Charlemagne Prophecy and other prophecies from the Joachite tradition It explores the possibility that Christine de Pizan who had been promoting these prophecies from the beginning of the century had some hand in the process that resulted in Joan s appearance and demonstrates at the very least that there are many links connecting Christine de Pizan to the knights who fought with Joan Merchant Vessels of the United States United States.
