

la justice et les enfants

Jean-Pierre Rosenczveig 2^e édition

Les enfants – les personnes de moins de dix-huit ans – plus encore que les adultes doivent beaucoup à la justice. Reconnus ici et maintenant dans leurs droits, dans la famille, à l'école, dans la cité, les enfants sont plus à même de tenir leur place dans la société, notamment de ne pas être « en conflit avec la loi ».

Rendre justice à l'enfant, ce n'est pas seulement être juste à la maison, à l'école ou dans la cité, c'est encore veiller à ce que l'institution judiciaire (et policière) lui garantisse ses droits fondamentaux : le droit à un statut et à s'inscrire dans une famille, le droit d'être protégé et éduqué, a priori par ses parents, et s'il le faut par d'autres personnes, le droit à être reconnu comme victime quand il est victime d'une agression, le droit à l'éducation quand, faute de protection, il a dérapé.

Lever même modestement le voile qui recouvre cette justice, dépasser les représentations souvent fausses qui l'entourent, c'est déjà avancer dans une meilleure prise en compte des enfants de France.

Jean-Pierre Rosenczveig, président du tribunal pour enfants de Bobigny, ancien président du Bureau international des droits de l'enfant, membre du Collège droit des enfants auprès du Défenseur des droits, est également enseignant en master 2 à l'Université Paris Nanterre.
