Henri Dutilleux Caroline Potter, 2017-07-05 Henri Dutilleux born 1916 is one of France's leading composers though until recently his music received more attention in the United States than in Europe A fiercely independent composer who pursues his own musical path regardless of fashion he has never courted the public eye yet in this book he is revealed as a composer very much engaged with the work of other artists from all spheres Caroline Potter's fascinating survey examines the relation of some of these artists to Dutilleux's music In literature the notions of memory and time found in the writings of Baudelaire and Proust have had profound effects on his compositional development whilst the visual arts have informed his aesthetic ideas and their expression in both his music and even in his meticulously produced scores Always a perfectionist Dutilleux now rejects those earlier works which are not representative of his mature style By analysing these early pieces Dr Potter traces the evolution of his musical style and she investigates his compositional process and use of particular referential devices in later works Whilst his music is unequivocally of our time Dutilleux has never lost the ability to communicate with a wide ranging audience Drawing on interviews with the composer this study provides penetrating insights into this complex composer s musical world The Author as Cannibal Felisa Vergara Reynolds,2022
