Regards croisés sur l'Afrique à l'ère des (r)évolutions
 Jaouad Serghini, Ute Fendler, 2025-09-18. Le renouveau concept souvent associé au changement et la transformation est considéré comme un moment privilégié de rupture avec un ordre ancien obsolète débouchant sur l'instauration d'un ordre nouveau qui évoque un passé lugubre. En effet, suite à la chute du mur de Berlin et au discours de La Baule du président français François Mitterrand, plusieurs États africains ont bon gré mal gré opté pour la démocratie parlementaire avec pour conséquence l'institutionnalisation des élections comme mode d'accès au pouvoir d'État. En dépit de cette avancée constitutionnelle, l'alternance politique demeure chose rare en Afrique particulièrement dans les États francophones. Les régimes sont restés dans un semi autoritarisme en antissant toute possibilité d'alternance. Aussi, l'adoption de la démocratie n'a-t-elle pas permis de nombreuses couches socioprofessionnelles de sortir de la précarité. C'est ainsi que deux décennies après le début de 2010, l'on assiste dans plusieurs pays africains à l'émergence de mouvements contestataires marquant ainsi le début d'une révolution. Ce livre rassemble des analyses de cas qui reflètent la grande diversité des mouvements socio-politiques dans plusieurs pays comme le Burkina Faso, le Congo, la Côte d'Ivoire ou le Maroc, à partir de diverses manifestations culturelles comme les cinémas, les littératures ou des pratiques culturelles et religieuses ou des formats médiatiques dans des contextes politiques complexes. Avec des contributions de Patricia Caill Assi, Boni Marie Pascaline Esoko, Bekombe Georges Macaire Eyenga, Marie Nadège Tsogo Issa Fofana Fousseyni Tour, Georgette Afiwavi Kponvi, Jaouad Serghini, Maria Bouzine Idrissou Mounpe Chare, Ute Fendler.

SOCIÉTÉ RURALE ET MENTALITÉS COLLECTIVES EN TRANSYLVANIE À L'ÉPOQUE MODERNE (1680-1800)

Toader Nicoara, 2002-04-01. L'auteur propose une incursion dans l'univers mental et imaginaire d'une société rurale d'Europe Centrale tout au long du premier siècle de l'installation des Habsbourg en Transylvanie. Après la présentation des cadres fondamentaux de la civilisation rurale transylvaine, cette étude analyse les valeurs sur lesquelles s'organise une identité moderne pour les Roumains, quelle image de soi, quelles stratégies de construction d'une identité nationale moderne au-delà de l'image du servage du seigneur terrien, du mythe du bon empereur.

Le partenariat euro-méditerranéen à l'heure du cinquième élargissement de l'Union européenne
 Abdelkhaleq Berramdane, 2005. L'Europe est liée géographiquement historiquement et culturellement à la Méditerranée. Depuis les temps immémoriaux, la Méditerranée a joué un rôle exceptionnel de carrefours de peuples et de civilisations. À l'heure de la mondialisation et de l'interdépendance croissantes de la constitution de grands ensembles, le partenariat euro-méditerranéen est le processus de Barcelone 27-28 novembre 1995 mis en place par l'

Union européenne et ses voisins des rives méridionales et orientales de la Méditerranée a marqué un tournant dans les relations de l'Union avec ses voisins méditerranéens. Il a rompu avec une approche traditionnelle essentiellement bilatérale et commerciale et opté pour une stratégie globale multilatérale durable visant à établir une zone de paix et de stabilité partagées de plus d'un milliard d'habitants. Le centre de gravité de l'Union s'est déplacé aujourd'hui à l'Est. Pour autant, l'Europe élargie peut-elle se détacher de ses marchés méditerranéens ? Peut-elle ignorer cet espace hétérogène traversé de conflits : mer Égée, Sahara occidental, Moyen-Orient, marqué par le repli identitaire et la violence, mais combien nécessaire la paix et la sécurité de l'Union ? Les pays des rives méridionales et orientales de la Méditerranée peuvent-ils se passer de l'Union, leur premier partenaire commercial, premier investisseur direct étranger dans la région, première source d'assistance et de moyens de financement, première source de tourisme et première destination de migrants de ces pays ? N'y a-t-il pas de leur prospérité et de leur stabilité ? Cet ouvrage issu d'un colloque international et multidisciplinaire organisé par le Groupe d'études et de recherches sur la coopération internationale et européenne GERCIE de l'Université de Tours porte principalement sur les implications du cinquième élargissement de l'Union européenne, le plus important depuis la création des Communautés européennes, sur le partenariat euro-méditerranéen. Cet élargissement ne risque-t-il pas de modifier la nature et l'intensité des relations entre l'Union européenne, ses États membres et les pays voisins de la Méditerranée, et plus particulièrement les États du Maghreb ? Ne pose-t-il pas de façon générale la question des frontières de l'Union ? Tout en dressant l'occasion du dixième anniversaire du partenariat euro-méditerranéen, le bilan en demi-teinte du processus de Barcelone, ce livre envisage l'avenir des relations euro-méditerranéennes dans le cadre d'une Europe élargie vingt-cinq. Il propose différentes voies qui pourraient être empruntées afin d'éviter que le partenariat euro-méditerranéen ne s'ensable et ne finisse par être emporté par les vents qui soufflent en tous sens en Méditerranée.
