

The background of the entire cover is a romantic scene. A couple is silhouetted as they sit closely together on a dark wooden fence. They are looking out over a body of water, likely a lake or a wide river, where the sun is setting. The sky is a mix of soft pinks, oranges, and yellows, with some wispy clouds. The water's surface is dark but reflects the warm colors of the sunset, creating a shimmering effect. The overall mood is peaceful and intimate.

Allison, Jr.,2021-03-11 The earliest traditions around the narrative of Jesus resurrection are considered in this landmark work by Dale C Allison Jr drawing together the fruits of his decades of research into this issue at the very core of Christian identity Allison returns to the ancient sources and earliest traditions charting them alongside the development of faith in the resurrection in the early church and throughout Christian history Beginning with historical critical methodology that examines the empty tomb narratives and early confessions Allison moves on to consider the resurrection in parallel with other traditions and stories including Tibetan accounts of saintly figures being assumed into the light in the chapter Rainbow Body Finally Allison considers what might be said by way of results or conclusions on the topic of resurrection offering perspectives from both apologetic and sceptical viewpoints In his final section of modest results he considers scholarly approaches to the resurrection in light of human experience adding fresh nuance to a debate that has often been characterised in overly simplistic terms of it happened or it didn t "The" English Catalogue of Books ,1898

Invading the Realm of Demons, Disease, and Death Carl E. Roemer,2024-01-29 This study of the miracles attributed to Jesus in the Gospels begins with a survey of the sciences because in our present cultural context materialism is the dominant approach to and understanding of our world of history and of our very selves If the materialist s understanding is true then there is no such thing as miracles because every event must occur as the result of some previous material events Contemporary biblical scholarship mostly approaches the miracle stories from a materialist point of view It questions their historicity because they violate what has now become the entrenched modus operandi in our culture and society operating with the idea that the universe is a closed nexus of cause and effect The miracles are understood then as products of the community and not historical reports although according to this line of scholarship they may be based on some vague recollection of Jesus s activity that somehow had healing effects Modern science however as one scientist has put it in climbing the mountain of knowledge has reached its peak and found a theologian at the top The sciences in other words have led to the implication that our universe has a creator and that the universe and the human genome have been designed
