Woman and Indian Modernity Nalini Natarajan, 2002 Drawing from the large body of criticism on non European modernities in recent years this study targets what seems to be a discernable ambivalence in these studies The author seeks to investigate Twentieth Century India's complex negotiations with modernity with its usefulness as well as its threat at one of the most vulnerable points of definition the position of women Focusing on the disciplines or genres within which modernity is introduced the study uses the modern literary genre as well as intellectual disciplines Using these two domains of study an interdisciplinary framework is developed by looking at how narratives may be read in the light of other disciplines constructing the modern subject ideologies of manners and refinement prohibition ethnography ethnopsychology film property law and urban history The book argues that the possibilities in modernity are subject to a constant negotiation and become domesticated through the century especially in the area of gendering Gendering is revealed as a historically contingent process operating differently at different historical moments The analysis enables us to see the ideological gender constructions and contradictions behind modern versions of caste modern daughterhood modern citizenship and modern proprietorship Triveni ,2003 The Bulletin ,2002 Parsi Fiction Novy Kapadia,Jaydipsinh Dodiya,Rajinder Kumar Dhawan,2001 The Work Is In 2 Volumes And Covers The Works Of Rohinton Mistry Bapsi Sidhwa Dina Mehta Kanga Daruwalla Boman Desai Ardashir Vakil Meher Pestonji And Farishta Murzban Dinshaw
