Hutchinson,1914 Journal of the Institute of Bankers Institute of Bankers (Great Britain),1915 The Liberal Unionist Party Ian Cawood,2012-08-14 The Liberal Unionist party was one of the shortest lived political parties in British history It was formed in 1886 by a faction of the Liberal party led by Lord Hartington which opposed Irish home rule In 1895 it entered into a coalition government with the Conservative party and in 1912 now under the leadership of Joseph Chamberlain it amalgamated with the Conservatives Ian Cawood here uses previously unpublished archival material to provide the first complete study of the Liberal Unionist party He argues that the party was a genuinely successful political movement with widespread activist and popular support which resulted in the development of an authentic Liberal Unionist culture across Britain in the mid 1890s The issues which this book explores are central to an understanding of the development of the twentieth century Conservative party the emergence of a national political culture and the problems both organisational and ideological of a sustained period of coalition in the British parliamentary system

Darwin-Inspired Learning Carolyn J. Boulter,Michael J. Reiss,Dawn L. Sanders,2015-01-19 Charles Darwin has been extensively analysed and written about as a scientist Victorian father and husband However this is the first book to present a carefully thought out pedagogical approach to learning that is centered on Darwin s life and scientific practice The ways in which Darwin developed his scientific ideas and their far reaching effects continue to challenge and provoke contemporary teachers and learners inspiring them to consider both how scientists work and how individual humans read nature Darwin inspired learning as proposed in this international collection of essays is an enquiry based pedagogy that takes the professional practice of Charles Darwin as its source Without seeking to idealise the man Darwin inspired learning places importance on active learning hands on enquiry critical thinking creativity argumentation interdisciplinarity In an increasingly urbanised world first hand observations of living plants and animals are becoming rarer Indeed some commentators suggest that such encounters are under threat and children are living in a time of nature deficit Darwin inspired learning with its focus on close observation and hands on enquiry seeks to re engage children and young people with the living world through critical and creative thinking modeled on Darwin s life and science
