Lying On The Couch Irvin D. Yalom, 2014-03-25 From the bestselling author of Love's Executioner and When Nietzsche Wept comes a provocative exploration of the unusual relationships three therapists form with their patients Seymour is a therapist of the old school who blurs the boundary of sexual propriety with one of his clients Marshal who is haunted by his own obsessive compulsive behaviors is troubled by the role money plays in his dealings with his patients Finally there is Ernest Lash Driven by his sincere desire to help and his faith in psychoanalysis he invents a radically new approach to therapy a totally open and honest relationship with a patient that threatens to have devastating results Exposing the many lies that are told on and off the psychoanalyst's couch Lying on the Couch gives readers a tantalizing almost illicit glimpse at what their therapists might really be thinking during their sessions Fascinating engrossing and relentlessly intelligent it ultimately moves readers with a denouement of surprising humanity and redemptive faith Lying on the Couch Irvin D. Exodus Cornelis Houtman,1993 This is the second volume in a new series the Historical Commentary on the Old Testament which devotes explicit attention to the history of interpretation of biblical tradition in all its stages both within and without the Hebrew canon As the term Old Testament indicates the commentary stands in the Christian exegetical tradition The team of contributors comprises scholars from all over the world and from any different churches and denominations for Old Testament scholars but also for ministers and other interested parties The treatment of every pericope is preceded by a new translation and a section called Essentials and Perspectives in which the author summarizes the results of the exegesis in non technical language The primacy here is assigned to the final stage of the text The summary should incite the user to consult the main body of the exegesis which is headed Scholarly Exposition scholarship *The Century Dictionary and Cyclopedia: The Century dictionary ... prepared under the superintendence of William Dwight Whitney ... rev. & enl. under the superintendence of Benjamin E. Personal Relations Therapy Harry Guntrip,1994 This book gives us the broad sweep of a remarkable psychoanalytic writer Harry Guntrip whose place is at the forefront of our efforts to explain the role of an emergent and resilient self in the organization and maintenance of human relations I believe that a substantial part of Guntrip's discovery of his work on a painful and bleak frontier that was simultaneously within himself and in the realm of the science of psychoanalysis has been absorbed into the sensibility of the field with far less attribution and direct appreciation than is warranted Harry Guntrip brought a unique intensity to the examination of personal experience in constructing and validating psychoanalytic meaning His heritage draws directly on the tradition of Freud whose personal struggles formed the raw data for The Interpretation of Dreams There are few works of such stature in the annals of our work few examples of the blending of life and art life and science Guntrip's work is one of them In this volume Jeremy Hazell has done far more than simply collect the records He has done that and he has allowed it to stand for itself But he has done so through his own lens through a depth of understanding and valuing that shines through His introduction is a record of the interweaving of Guntrip's personal growth with his psychoanalytic understanding It is a Baedeker of Guntrip's travels a rich appreciation a tribute and a fine work in its own right Guntrip's work is important to us perhaps now more than ever The issues with which he grappled have come to haunt us in a time of ever more consciousness of the toll of social and personal deprivation and of a growing awareness that our work is not concerned with egos with the mechanisms of an autonomous mind as much as it is with selves in relation to others Taking from his teachers and colleagues from Fairbairn Winnicott and Sutherland Guntrip worked tirelessly to teach that it is in the depth of personal relations that we find ourselves and that dedication to this process offers us what we have to give to our patients Jeremy Hazell has drawn together the record of this personal journey He has understood it absorbed its meaning and given it to us that we may use it and expand its reach I am grateful to him for his dedication and for the appearance of this collection at long last a work that will illuminate paths of new exploration in psychoanalysis for many years to come
