Zatlin, 2020-09-04 This collection of essays by a range of international multidisciplinary scholars explores the financial history social significance and cultural meanings of the theft starting in 1933 of assets owned by German Jews Despite the fraught topic and the ongoing legal discussions the subject has not received much scholarly attention until now This volume offers a much needed contribution to our understanding of the history of the period and the acts The essays examine the confiscatory taxation of Jewish property the looting of art and confiscation of gold the role of German freight forwarders in property theft salesmen and dispossession in the retail world theft from the elderly and the complicity of the banking industry as well as the reach of the practice beyond German borders Jewish Dealers and the European Art Market, c. 1860–1940 Silvia Davoli, Tom Stammers, 2025-01-23 Before the tragedy of the Holocaust many of the leading art and antiques dealers across Europe were Jewish establishing dynamic cross Channel international and transatlantic networks Aside from a few famous examples however we are only at the beginning of exploring the diversity of Jewish dealers commercial and cultural worlds and reflecting on the particular conditions that made possible their dramatic expansion within the profession Adopting a wider geography than any previous study this book brings together a team of distinguished international contributors to consider Jewish art dealers as an interconnected cohort tied together by common strategies and a shared vulnerability After an extended historiographical introduction the volume presents case studies and trends from 1860 1940 including Jewish family businesses in Western Europe the role of Jews as mediators of art from East Asia the antisemitism and suspicion faced by Jewish dealers Jews as theorists exhibition makers and promoters of modern art and the geographical mobility and professional reinvention of Jewish dealers in times of economic and political crisis With a wide variety of illustrations including paintings decorative arts historic photographs and archival material the volume adopts a mix of methodological approaches to analyse a key chapter in Jewish cultural history and in the history of the international art market Includes Afterword by Charles Dellheim author of Belonging and Betrayal How Jews Made the Art World Modern 2021 Reshaping Markets Bertram Lomfeld, Alessandro Somma, Peer Zumbansen, 2016-04-15 Set against the origins and consequences of the global financial crisis this timely book offers an enriching and revealing narrative of the role that the state plays in regulating markets Focusing on core areas of private law such as corporate labour and banking law the contributors offer a conceptual framework in which to examine the central tenets of the role of private law in today s global economy In the current climate of ever increasing economic inequality and austerity measures the authors highlight the urgent need for a comprehensive analysis of the continuing tension between ideas of market liberalism and theories of society With a focus on both the domestic and transnational dimensions of market governance the authors offer a crucial insight into the co existence and interaction between state and market based economic governance Honors College Essays Michigan State University.
