Kingston Noir Colin Channer, 2012-05-29 Subverts the simplistic sunshine reggae spliff smoking image of Jamaica at almost every turn with a rich interplay of geographies and themes Los Angeles Times From Trench Town to Half Way Tree to Norbrook to Portmore and beyond the stories of Kingston Noir shine light into the darkest corners of this fabled city Joining award winning Jamaican authors such as Marlon James Leone Ross and Thomas Glave are two special guest writers with no Jamaican lineage Nigerian born Chris Abani and British writer Ian Thomson The menacing tone that runs through some of these stories is counterbalanced by the clever humor in others such as Kei Miller's White Gyal with a Camera who softens even the hardest of August Town's gangsters and Mr Brown the private investigator in Kwame Dawes's story who explains why his girth works to his advantage In Jamaica a woman like a big man She can see he is prosperous and that he can be in charge Together with more contributions from Patricia Powell Colin Channer Marcia Douglas and Christopher John Farley the outstanding tales in Kingston Noir comprise the best volume of short fiction ever to arise from the literary wellspring that is Jamaica Thoroughly well written stories fans of noir will enjoy this batch of sordid tales set in the sweltering heat of the tropics Publishers Weekly An eclectic and gritty mélange of tales that sears the imagination Kingston Noir proves its worth as a quintessential piece of West Indian literature rich artistic timeless and above all draped in unmistakable realism The Gleaner Jamaica

Atlanta Noir Tayari Jones, 2025-07-01 This much anticipated and long overdue installment in Akashic's Noir Series reveals many sides of Atlanta only known to its residents Atlanta has its share maybe more than its share of prosperity But wealth is no safeguard against peril Creepy as well as dark grim in outlook Hints of the supernatural may make these tales appealing to lovers of ghost stories Kirkus Reviews Akashic Books continues its award winning series of original noir anthologies launched in 2004 with Brooklyn Noir Each book comprises all new stories each one set in a distinct neighborhood or location within the respective city This much anticipated and long overdue installment in Akashic's Noir Series reveals many sides of Atlanta known only to its residents Brand new stories by Tananarive Due Kenji Jasper Tayari Jones Dallas Hudgens Jim Grimsley Brandon Massey Jennifer Harlow Sheri Joseph Alesia Parker Gillian Royes Anthony Grooms John Holman Daniel Black and David James Poissant From the introduction by Tayari Jones Atlanta itself is a crime scene After all Georgia was founded as a de facto penal colony and in 1864 Sherman burned the city to the ground We might argue about whether the arson was the crime or the response to the crime but this is indisputable Atlanta is a city sewn from the ashes and everything that grows here is at once fertilized and corrupted by the past These stories do not necessarily conform to the traditional expectations of noir However they all share the quality of exposing the rot underneath the scent of magnolia and pine Noir in my opinion is more a question of tone than content The moral universe of the story is as significant as the physical space Noir is a realm where the good guys seldom win perhaps they hardly exist at all Few bad deeds go unrewarded and good intentions are not the road to hell but are hell itself Welcome to Atlanta Noir Come sit on the veranda or the terrace of a high rise condo Pour yourself a glass of sweet tea and fortify it with a slug of bourbon Put your feet up Enjoy these stories and watch your back A Companion to the Gangster Film George S. Tunca,2021-09-05 This book examines representations of violence across the postcolonial world from the Americas to Australia in novels short stories plays and films The chapters move from what appear to be interpersonal instances of violence to communal conflicts such as civil war showing how these acts of violence are specifically rooted in colonial forms of abuse and oppression but constantly move and morph Taking its cue from theories in such fields as postcolonial violence gender and trauma studies the book thus shows that violence is slippery in form but also fluid in nature so that one must trace its movement across time and space to understand even a single instance of it When analysing such forms and trajectories of violence in postcolonial creative writing and films the contributors critically examine the ethical issues involved in narrating abuse depicting violated bodies and presenting romanticized resolutions that may conceal other forms of violence      Pepperpot Sharon Millar,Dwight Thompson,Kevin Baldeosingh,Ivory Kelly,Barbara Jenkins,Sharon Leach,Joanne C.
