Gordon, 2017-12-06 Gathering researchers from or towards Global South epistemologies this book enriches the debate on crucial questions for liberation in the South and the improvement of South relations It argues that coloniality and colonialism are not outdated phenomena of the historical past but contemporary marks that remain repressed The dominance of Eurocentric paradigm in the social sciences explains the long lasting detachment between thinkers and politicians from the Global South which have been historically presented according to their respective relations with the West Europe and North America The dialogue on common problems and challenges to people and societies in the South largely derived from their colonial past and condition is still sparing This book actively promotes and demonstrates the value of intercultural dialogue and debate amongst voices from within the Global South on issues to do with decoloniality cultural rights law and politics attitudes and political positions In this book Stephen Smith focuses on young Africa 40 per cent of its population are under fifteen and a dramatic demographic shift Today 510 million people live inside EU borders and 1.25 billion people in Africa In 2050 450 million Europeans will face 2.5 billion Africans five times their number The demographics are implacable The scramble for Europe will become as inexorable as the scramble for Africa was at the end of the nineteenth century when 275 million people lived north and only 100 million lived south of the Mediterranean Then it was all about raw materials and national pride now it is about young Africans seeking a better life on the Old Continent the island of prosperity within their reach If Africa's migratory patterns follow the historic precedents set by other less developed parts of the world in thirty years a quarter of Europe's population will be Afro Europeans Addressing the question of how Europe can cope with an influx of this magnitude Smith argues for a path between the two extremes of today's debate He advocates migratory policies of good neighbourhood equidistant from guilt ridden self denial and nativist egoism This sobering analysis of the migration challenges we now face will be essential reading for anyone concerned with the great social and political questions of our time

Afrotopia Felwine Sarr, 2020-03-17 A vibrant meditation and poetic call for an African utopian philosophy of self reinvention for the twenty first century In the recent aftermath of colonialism civil wars and the AIDS crisis a new day finally seems to be shining on the African continent Africa has once again become a site of creative potential and a vibrant center of economic growth and production No longer stigmatized by stereotypes or encumbered by the traumas of the past yet unsure of the future Africa has other options than simply to follow paths already carved out by the global economy Instead the philosopher Felwine Sarr urges the continent to set out on its own renewal and self discovery an active utopia that requires a deep historical reflection on the continent s vast mythological universe and ancient traditions nourishes a cultural reinvention and embraces green technologies for tackling climate change and demographic challenges Through a reflection on contemporary African writers artists intellectuals and musicians Sarr elaborates Africa s unique philosophies and notions of communal value and economy deeply rooted in its ancient traditions and landscape concepts such as ubuntu the life force in Dogon culture the Rwandan imihigo and the Senegalese teranga Sarr takes the reader on a philosophical journey that is as much inward as outward demanding an elevation of the collective consciousness Along the way one sees the contours of an africanity a contemporary Africa united as a continent through the creolization of its cultural traditions This is Felwine Sarr s Afrotopia Glimpses of Unfamiliar Japan Lafcadio Hearn,1928 The Athenæum ,1875 Bulletin du Comité de l'Afrique française ,1901
