The Arts of Leading Edward William Randolph Llywelyn Brooks, Michael Lamb, 2024 This multi author volume turns to the humanities to explore what we can learn about leadership when we shift our lens away from business politics and the social sciences to explore the rich diverse and nuanced perspectives of the liberal arts Drawing insights from leading scholars in classics philosophy religion literature history and the visual and performing arts this book considers how diverse exemplars and a wide range of disciplinary ways of knowing can illuminate complex aspects of leadership that are often obscured in a leadership discourse typically centered on business and politics It asks fundamental questions about human social life What does it mean to lead Whom do we consider to be leaders And how might diverse perspectives from the humanities expand how leadership is imagined represented and enacted Rather than instrumentalizing the humanities or reducing them to mere management resources The Arts of Leading engages diverse perspectives from the humanities on their own terms to uncover alternative ways of imagining embodying and enacting leadership across different historical moral and cultural contexts The result is a series of insightful and refreshing essays that challenge leaders scholars and citizens to consider the nuanced meaning of leadership in our complex world Illustrated Ireland Guide ,1969
