

Name _____

Learning Goal: I can write a narrative piece.

Date _____

Part of piece	1 point I need to work on it.	2 points I tried.	3 points I did it!	4 points I went beyond.	Points
Overall	I told, drew, and wrote a whole story.	I wrote about when I did something.	I wrote about one time when I did something.	I told the story bit by bit.
Lead	I had a page that showed what happened first.	I tried to make a beginning for my story.	I thought about how to write a good beginning and chose a way to start my story. I chose the action, talk, or setting that would make a good beginning.	I wrote a beginning in which I helped readers know who the characters were and what the setting was in my story.
Transitions	I put my pages in order.	I put her pages in order. I used words such as and, then, and so.	I told the story in order by using words such as when, then, and after.	I told my story in order by using phrases such as a little later and after that.
Ending	I had a page that showed what happened last in my story.	I found a way to end my story.	I chose the action, talk, or feeling that would make a good ending.	I chose the action, talk, or feeling that would make a good ending and worked to write it well.
Organization	My story had a page for the beginning, a page for the middle, and a page for the end.	I wrote my story across three or more pages.	I wrote a lot of lines on a page and wrote across a lot of pages.	I used paragraphs and skipped lines to separate what happened first from what happened later (and finally) in her story.
Elaboration*	My story indicated who was there, what they did, and how the characters felt.	I put the picture from my mind onto the page. I had details in pictures and words.	I tried to bring my characters to life with details, talk, and actions.	I worked to show what was happening to (and in) my characters.	40

Is That a Fact? Tony Stead, 2023-10-11 The book you are about to read is destined to be the first middle and maybe even the last word on nonfiction writing for young children It is certainly a text that you will return to over and over again as you do with a beloved cookbook from the Foreword by Tomie dePaola Over eighty five percent of the reading and writing we do as adults is nonfiction yet most of the reading and writing in K 3 classrooms is fiction or personal narrative In Is That a Fact Teaching Nonfiction Writing K 3 Tony Stead shows you how to open the door to the rich world of nonfiction writing that goes beyond what I did narratives and animal reports And he convincingly demonstrates the importance of introducing nonfiction writing in the primary grades Nonfiction inspires enthusiasm in young children because they can choose topics that are of interest to them personally Is That a Fact explores a variety of authentic purposes for writing nonfiction such as describing explaining instructing persuading retelling and exploring relationships with others You will learn how to introduce each purpose using a variety of forms including letters reports poetry captions directions and interviews Part One provides a complete overview of teaching nonfiction writing in the primary grades and includes practical ways for organizing nonfiction resources within the classroom how to assist children in collecting information for research ideas for helping children keep their sense of voice when writing nonfiction a chapter on spelling with examples of how to guide students at each stage of spelling development strategies for assessment and evaluation that guide teaching and learning engagements Part Two provides five different explorations that were implemented in actual K 3 classrooms Each focuses on a specific purpose for writing nonfiction and features examples of whole class small group and independent instructional engagements a comprehensive assessment rubric that will help teachers tailor instruction to the needs of all learners an extensive resource section that includes lists of books in the exploration grouped by readability levels answers to the most commonly asked questions about teaching nonfiction writing The appendixes include a self assessment questionnaire reproducible pages for exploring specific writing forms and letters to parents Children need to be introduced to the different purposes of nonfiction writing They need to know how to plan compose revise and publish nonfiction beyond narrative Is That a Fact guides you in achieving these goals with your students

Units of Study for Teaching Writing Lucy Calkins, 2006 This series of books is designed to help upper elementary teachers teach a rigorous yearlong writing curriculum The Power of Story Joan Wink Ph.D., 2017-11-07 Through this book readers will discover that stories can move the human heart and head in ways that research cannot Stories bring together readers writers librarians teachers students and families in the libraries of today and will continue to do so tomorrow Written for all those lovers of literacy this book links libraries and literacies through the power of stories The book is not filled with data in the form of pie charts graphs and tables Rather the truth of the research is grounded in authentic stories that reflect not only the interpretation of data but also the transformative nature of literacies and libraries The author's primary goal is that readers will come to value and use storytelling in their own professional and personal lives to explain and expand on complex concepts and to make information more accessible for all The book begins by presenting anecdotes and the author's personal story to lay the foundation for what literacies are and what literacy is not An activity Spiral of Literacy allows readers to reflect on their own literacies Chapters that follow each begin with a story that sets the theoretical foundation Each chapter concludes with an action section that demonstrates how to turn theory to practice whether you are in a library a classroom or at home A final chapter envisions what libraries might look like in 10 years through interviews with librarians teachers and others interested in literacy
