Biological Invasions, a Question of Nature and Society Robert Barbault, Martine Atramentowicz, 2011-01-17 Invasions of introduced species cause varying degrees of harm on the ecosystems in question and it is up to society to deal with the consequences How can we prevent biological invasions How can we assess the risk they represent What can be done to control current invasions Aware of this problem the Ministry of Ecology has requested a community of researchers from a variety of disciplines to decipher these questions using biological sociological and economic approaches Although the definitive response to the problems raised by invasive species in natural spaces is not provided here undeniable progress in understanding mechanisms underlying these invasions can shed light on the decisions which have to be taken by environmental managers Scientists teachers and students will also find results and thought processes in this book to supplement their knowledge

The Light-Green Society Michael Bess, 2003-11-15 The accelerating interpenetration of nature and culture is the hallmark of the new light green social order that has emerged in postwar France argues Michael Bess in this penetrating new history On one hand a preoccupation with natural qualities and equilibrium has increasingly infused France's economic and cultural life On the other human activities have laid an ever more potent and pervasive touch on the environment whether through the intrusion of agriculture industry and urban growth or through the much subtler and more well intentioned efforts of ecological management The Light Green Society limns sharply these trends over the last fifty years The rise of environmentalism in the 1960s stemmed from a fervent desire to save wild nature nature conceived as a qualitatively distinct domain wholly separate from human designs and endeavors And yet Bess shows after forty years of environmentalist agitation much of it remarkably successful in achieving its aims the old conception of nature as a separate sphere has become largely untenable In the light green society where ecology and technological modernity continually flow together a new hybrid vision of intermingled nature culture has increasingly taken its place

Victor Hugo, Romancier de l'Abîme James Hiddleston, 2017-12-02 This study of Victor Hugo's work aims to uncover the diversity the thematic and narrative singularity and the shifting ironies and resistance to interpretative closure of his writing Novels examined include Notre Dame de Paris Les Misérables Les Travailleurs de la Mer Quatre vingt treize and L'Homme qui Rit The 11 essays in the volume bring together various critical approaches from French British and American scholars in an attempt to provide a new point of departure and to provoke discussion of Victor Hugo's novels This publication marks the bicentenary of Hugo's birth in 1802

Metaphysics and the Sciences in Nineteenth-Century France, 2025-07-22 This volume is the first systematic study of the style of reasoning specific to the field of philosophy in nineteenth century France The chapters analyze the often dispersed responses to the fundamental question of the division of the sciences based on the reciprocal relationships of inclusion or exclusion of adversity or sorority between metaphysics and the positive sciences In line with the arrhythmic progress of the different forms of knowledge these responses renew the Condillacian criticisms of the Cartesian order of the relationships between metaphysics and physics Between a pronounced divorce and a successful marriage this volume traces the philosophical history of the various attempts at divorce or union which as the century progressed resulted in original hybridizations that aspired to define a new and ever problematic French philosophy     The Ceremonies and Religious Customs of the Various Nations of the Known World ,1743     Journal de la Société des américanistes de Paris ,1914     Cahiers de linguistique théorique et appliquée ,1990     Proceedings / Actes et Documents of the XIXth Session of The Hague Conference on Private International Law The Hague Conference on Private Internat,2006-10-31 This volume of the Proceedings of the Nineteenth Session of the Hague Conference on Private International Law encompasses all preparatory work and records of meetings which led to the adoption of the Hague Convention on the Law Applicable to Certain Rights in Respect of Securities held with an Intermediary the Hague Securities Convention The signing of this Convention on 5 July 2006 by two of the world s major financial markets the United States and Switzerland shows the relevance of the new treaty Traditional rules based on physical transfers and direct holdings are too diverse and inadequate to deal with securities which are nowadays transferred and pledged by electronic entries to accounts with clearing and settlement systems and other intermediaries By identifying specific conflict rules the Hague Securities Convention provides a means to remedy this lack of legal certainty which has characterized for too long the field of security transactions The Proceedings will enable the financial world but also legal practitioners and academics to grasp the background and full objectives of this very innovative international instrument     Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum,1888     The Great Problems Bernardino Varisco,1914     Manual of the History of French Literature Ferdinand Brunetière,1898     Catalogue of the London Library, St. James Square, London London Library,Charles Theodore Hagberg Wright,Christopher James Purnell,1914     Paul Bourget the Psychological Novelist Hermance Wallber Griebisch,1929     Ralph Waldo Emerson Marie Dugard,1907     Dalhousie French Studies ,2002     Annales de l'Université de Lyon ,1895     La guerre et ses conséquences, par un membre de la société des amis de la paix François Le Doyen,1874     Index to the Catalogue of Books in the Bates Hall of the Public Library of the City of Boston Boston Public Library,1865     British Museum Catalogue of printed Books ,1888     Conférence internationale de l'aménagement des villes, Amsterdam, 1924 ...: Report International federation for housing and planning.
